- Quarterbacks posted just a 77.1 QB rating when targeting Lucas, the 13th-lowest total among Pac-12 corners and posted a 49.2 defensive success percentage when targeted, good for 12th among the league's corners.

Redshirt Freshman (2017)

- Was a standout during his first season on the field, being named a freshman first-team all-American by the FWAA and second-team by USA Today
- Lucas earned Pac-12 Second Team honors at defensive back after an incredible freshman campaign in 2017, despite never playing a single snap at Division I cornerback prior to this season, and not playing as a day-to-day player at the position in high school.
- He was the only freshman to be named to either the Pac-12 First or Second teams last season and became the first freshman to earn First or Second team honors on offense or defense since Oregon running back Royce Freeman earned Second Team offense honors in 2014.
- He was the first Pac-12 freshman defensive back to make the First or Second teams since Brandon Browner did so for Oregon State back in 2003.
- During the regular season, Lucas allowed just 40 catches despite being targeted 78 times for a menial 51.2 completion percentage while allowing an NFL QBR of 72.4 with two interceptions and six passes defended.
- Despite being targeted more than any of the 23 Pac-12 corners that played at least 60 percent of snaps in the regular season (once every 4.6 passing plays), Lucas allowed the fifth-lowest completion percentage of any corner in the conference – regardless of year.
- Recorded 59 tackles, 46 unassisted and 13 assisted. His 59 tackles were the fifth most on the team.
- Led the Sun Devil secondary with two interceptions and eight pass breakups in 2017.
- Recorded a season high 12 tackles (11 solo), against Colorado (11/4)

HERM EDWARDS

Head Coach

Former NFL head coach and ESPN Analyst Herm Edwards was named the 24th head coach of Sun Devil Football, as announced by Arizona State University and Vice President of University Athletics Ray Anderson on December 3, 2017.

Edwards arrived in Tempe with a football legacy that has impacted thousands, whether as a player, coach, analyst, motivational speaker and author, or community advocate and philanthropist.

Edwards was tabbed by Anderson as someone who will be a "central leader with a collaborative staff around him that will elevate the performance of players and coaches on the field, in the classroom and in our community. Equally important, (Edwards) will be a dynamic and tireless recruiter."

In his first two seasons, Edwards has led the Sun Devils to consecutive winning seasons and bowl appearances, a win over Florida State in the 2019 Sun Bowl, a 2-0 record vs. Arizona and five wins over ranked foes, including an upset of sixth-ranked Oregon in 2019 and consecutive road triumphs at No. 18 Michigan State and at No. 15 Cal, representing just the second time in history (also accomplished in 1986) that ASU won two straight road games against ranked opponents in back-to-back opportunities.

Earlier this year ASU became just the seventh program in NFL Draft history to have a wide receiver selected in the first round of consecutive drafts after Brandon Aiyuk was selected by the San Francisco 49ers with the 25th pick. In 2019, Aiyuk's former teammate N'Keal Harry was taken off the board by New England with the 32nd pick.

In January 2020 ASU vice president for athletics Ray Anderson announced a contract extension for Edwards running through the 2024 season.

"Dr. Michael Crow (ASU President) and I are extremely encouraged with the overall direction of the football program under Coach Edwards and his staff, Anderson said. "They have built a foundation that is recruiting at unprecedented levels and we must ensure the continuation of that effort. This five-year commitment to Coach Edwards will demonstrate to prospective student-athletes and their parents the long-term commitment the University has toward his valued leadership.

"Additionally, Coach Edwards and staff have increased the win total, earned two bowl invitations, including one bowl victory, and have developed our young student-athletes at a very high level. We've had several freshman All-Americans in the past two years and we played 32 true and redshirt freshmen in 2019. Coach Edwards has assembled an impressive staff of coordinators, full-time assistants, consultants and analysts and has hired and developed young coaches as well, such as Sun Devil alum Derek Hagan."

"It is an honor for myself and my family to serve as head football coach at Arizona State University," Edwards said. "We have accomplished a lot in our first two years in Tempe and we look forward to continuing that momentum in all facets of our program."

In 2019 Edwards, who was named the Dodd Trophy Coach of the Week a record three times during the season, guided ASU to a 8-5 record, including wins at No. 18 Michigan State, at No. 15 Cal and vs. No. 6 Oregon. Edwards' steady leadership played a big role in the development of freshman quarterback Jayden Daniels who would go on to be named an ESPN Freshman All-American. After becoming the first true freshman quarterback in program history to start the first game of the season, Daniels went on to throw for 2,943 yards (11th most in school history) and 17 touchdowns with only two interceptions (the fewest in school history by a quarterback throwing 300 or more passes in a season).

Over the course of the season, Edwards oversaw the development of several standout players including Aiyuk (1,192 receiving yards, the fifth-most in ASU single season history), running back Eno Benjamin (ran for 1,083 yards and 10 TDs after breaking ASU's single-season rushing record as a sophomore with 1,642 yards), punter Michael Turk (Ray Guy Award semifinalist), defensive back Kobe Williams (graded as the eighth-highest defender in the Pac-12, regardless of position), defensive back Jack Jones (tied for ninth nationally with 16 passes defended on the season and his 1.33 passes defended per game were 12th in the country), wide receiver Frank Darby (averaged 21.9 yards per catch and hauled in eight touchdowns) and center Cohl Cabral (earned All-Pac-12 second-team honors).

Joining Aiyuk as Sun Devils selected in the 2020 NFL draft was running Benjamin (Arizona Cardinals, seventh round). In addition, Cabaal (Los Angeles Rams) and tight end Tommy Hudson (Tennessee Titans) signed free agent contracts.

Edwards and his coaching staff exceeded expectations during his first year in charge of the program, garnering national attention for several noteworthy achievements. ASU earned several significant victories under Edwards' watch, including a pair of Top-25 wins in Sun Devil Stadium over No. 15 Michigan State and No. 16 Utah.

Despite being picked last by the media in the Pac-12 South in the preseason, Arizona State had a chance to win the Pac-12 South on the road against Oregon before finishing second in the division with a 5-4 conference record.

Edwards led the Sun Devils to a dramatic comeback victory in his first-ever Territorial Cup game against rival Arizona. Arizona State came back from a 19-point fourth-quarter deficit to earn the Territorial Cup point with a 41-40 win in Tucson. The comeback represented the largest in the history of the Territorial Cup series. Edwards' first season culminated with an appearance against No. 21 Fresno State in the Las Vegas Bowl. Combined with ASU's wins at USC and vs. UCLA, Edwards became the only first-year coach in program history to defeat UA, USC and UCLA and make a bowl game.

Under Edwards and his coaching staff, several players enjoyed breakout seasons. Arizona State was the only Power-5 program to have a 3,000-yard passer (Manny Wilkins), a 1,000-yard receiver (Harry), and a 1,500-yard rusher (Benjamin) in 2018.

On the defensive end, linebacker Merlin Robertson was named the 2018 Pac-12 Defensive Freshman of the Year, becoming the first true freshman to lead the Sun Devils in tackles (77) since 2001. Fellow linebackers Darien Butler and Tyler Johnson came on strong as the season progressed as well as freshman standouts Aashari Crosswell (four interceptions) and Jermaine Lole (three sacks). Defensive tackle Renell Wren rated as the 23rd-best percentage among all defensive interior players in the FBS.

Harry (first round/New England Patriots) and Wren (fourth round/Cincinnati Bengals) were both selected in the 2019 NFL Draft. In addition, Wilkins (Green Bay Packers), offensive lineman Casey Tucker (Philadelphia Eagles) and Quinn Bailey (Denver Broncos), defensive back Jalen Harvey (Seattle Seahawks) and defensive lineman Doug Subtyl (Cleveland Browns) each accepted rookie free agent offers.

At ASU, Edwards has taken a proactive approach to developing coordinators and assistant coaches, drawing on his nearly three decades of NFL experience in a variety of capacities and wide range of leadership positions within both the sport of football and in other endeavors. That experience has also been utilized in an effort to develop players to prepare for the next stage of their careers after college.

Edwards spent eight years as an NFL head coach with the New York Jets (2001-05) and Kansas City Chiefs (2006-08). He led his teams to four playoff appearances, including 2004 when his Jets squad finished with a 10-6 regular season record and advanced to the AFC Divisional Playoffs. Edwards, who also guided the Chiefs to a Wild Card berth in 2006, is one of only four NFL coaches to lead two different teams to the playoffs in his first season as head coach with those teams.

Among the numerous players that Edwards coached in his career include Pro Football Hall of Famers Curtis Martin, Warren Sapp, Derrick Brooks, Kevin Mawae and Tony Gonzalez and numerous All-Pro players including as Larry Johnson, Ronde Barber, John Lynch, Jared Allen, Santana Moss, Tamba Hali, Derrick Johnson in addition to players like Donnie Abraham, Chad Pennington and Brandon Carr.

An undrafted free agent who went on to have a 10-year NFL career, Edwards never missed a game in his nine seasons with the Philadelphia Eagles from 1977 to 1985 and started all 16 games in seven of his nine seasons with the team. Over the course of his nine years in Philadelphia, Edwards totaled 38 interceptions – with seven during his sophomore NFL season – which is just one short of the franchise record. He earned second-team All-NFC honors in 1980 to help lead the Eagles to Super Bowl XV.

It is said the victory formation, which was implemented by the Eagles, came in part to a play made by Edwards late in the 1978 season. Trailing 17-12 to the New York Giants with seconds remaining, Giants' quarterback Joe Pisarcik fumbled the handoff and Edwards picked it up for the scoop and score and the 19-17 victory. The play became known in Philadelphia as "The Miracle at the Meadowlands."

Edwards retired from the NFL following the 1986 season, and as the first graduate of the league's Minority Coaching Fellowship, he immediately went into coaching as a defensive assistant at San Jose State University from 1987 to 1989.

In 1990, Edwards transitioned back into the NFL as a scout and defensive backs coach with the Chiefs from 1990 to 1995 under legendary head coach Marty Schottenheimer. He then served under Tony Dungy with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 1996-2000 before being hired as the head coach for the New York Jets in January 2001.

Over the course of five seasons Edwards led the Jets to three playoff berths, five postseason contests and a pair of 10-win seasons. His 35 victories with the team from 2001-04 is tied with Joe Walton (1983-86) for the most regular season wins by a coach in his first four years with the team.

He started his second tour with the Kansas City Chiefs in 2006 and became the first coach in franchise history to lead the team to the playoffs in his initial season.

HEAD COACH

Youth Foundation in 1985 with the goal of making a direct impact on the lives of children on the Monterey Peninsula.

Edwards has been recognized by multiple organizations for his work in the community. He received the 2012 Walter Camp Foundation Man of the Year Award for his longtime contributions to the game of football; he was honored with Team ESPN's Commentator of the Year Award in 2013; and in 2015 he received the prestigious Shell Legacy Award from the Shell Oil Company. Edwards was the recipient of the inaugural Voices Leadership Award in 2017. Voices is an organization that provides a wide range of support services for 9/11 families, responders and survivors.

Known for his dynamic motivational speaking, Edwards regularly addresses football players of all ages, as well as corporate groups. He spoke to incoming players at the NFL Players Association's Rookie Premier in 2011, and coached teams at both the Under Armour All-America High School Football game (Head Coach 2011-16) and has also coached the NFLPA Collegiate Bowl college all-star game.

During his time at ESPN, Edwards remained connected to coaching as he served as a coach at the Under Armour All-American game, which features the top high school football recruits in the country. Edwards was 5-1 in the Under Armour All-America game, where he worked with such players as Jameis Winston, Amari Cooper, Deshaun Watson, Leonard Fournette and Dalvin Cook.

Edwards co-authored the book You Play to Win the Game – Leadership Lessons for Success On and Off the Field with ESPN's Shelley Smith, and he was involved in longtime NFL referee Jim Tunney's book, It's the Will, Not the Skill – Principles and Philosophies of Success as Seen Through the Eyes, Mind and Heart of Herm Edwards.

A passionate golfer, Edwards appeared in Golf Channel's original series "The Haney Project" with professional instructor Hank Haney in December 2011. Edwards has also played a number of high-profile celebrity tournaments in the past, including the Pebble Beach National Pro-Am and the American Century Celebrity Golf Championship in Lake Tahoe, the latter of which he takes part in every year.

Edwards and his wife Lia are the proud parents of three children: Marcus, Gabrielle and Vivian.

Edwards joined ESPN in March 2009 as an NFL studio analyst. He appeared primarily on NFL Live and SportsCenter, while also contributing to ESPN Radio and the company's annual Super Bowl coverage. He also worked local broadcasts of Eagles preseason games in 2009.

Among Edwards' other responsibilities, he called weekly SEC prime time college football games alongside Clay Matvick on ESPNU in 2010, and he worked alongside Rece Davis and Chris Spielman in August 2009 to call the Dike-New Hartford at Aplington-Parkersburg (Iowa) high school football game on ESPN. The game marked the emotional return to the field for Aplington-Parkersburg, which lost its legendary football coach Ed Thomas in a tragic school shooting two months earlier. Edwards also participated in the 2011 SportsCenter series "Back to School," where he returned to his hometown of Monterey, Calif., to coach his former high school team, the Monterey H.S. Toreadores.

Before officially joining ESPN, Edwards worked a brief stint in Bristol during the 2008 NFL offseason as a guest analyst.

Edwards' media background also came into play as the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) presented Edwards with a newly-created Super 11 Coach of the Year award for the outstanding access its membership was granted during the 2018 season. In May 2019, the Walter Cronkite School of Journalism and Mass Communication announced that Edwards will become a professor of practice at the school, serving as a guest lecturer in classes and conduct regular discussions on sports and the media at Cronkite.

Edwards played cornerback for the University of California in 1972 and 1974 before he ended his collegiate career at San Diego State in 1975.

A native of Seaside, Calif., Edwards graduated from Monterey High School, attended the University of California, Berkeley for two years, with a stint at Monterey Peninsula College, before graduating from San Diego State University with a degree in Criminal Justice. Edwards was inducted into the California Community College Sports Hall of Fame in 2017.

He was appointed a charter member of the Fritz Pollard Alliance, named a member of the Positive Coaching Alliance's National Advisory Committee in 2003 and sits on the Santa Catalina School Board of Trustees. Edwards also remains active in numerous charitable and philanthropic endeavors, including the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation (JDRF) along with his wife, Lia, who lives with Type I diabetes. He also created the Herman L. Edwards Family

ANTONIO PIERCE

Associate Head Coach | Co-Defensive Coordinator

Recruiting Coordinator/Linebackers Coach

One of the rising stars in the coaching ranks, Antonio Pierce was promoted to Associate Head Coach/Co-Defensive Coordinator in February 2020. Pierce, who also coaches the Sun Devil linebackers and serves as the program's recruiting coordinator, joined Herm Edwards' ASU coaching staff in December 2017.

"Antonio Pierce has established himself as one of the elite recruiters in the nation and is one of the brightest up-and-coming coaches around," Edwards said when announcing Pierce's most recent promotion. "His impact with the linebackers and with the Sun Devil program in just two seasons has been tangible and he has been a pivotal part in our defensive success since his arrival in Tempe."

A former Pro Bowl linebacker in the NFL, Pierce has played a pivotal role in the improvement on defense in the last two seasons while helping the program attain to new heights in the recruiting world.

The Sun Devil defense finished the 2019 regular season 35th in scoring defense, allowing just 22.4 points per game – notables as the Sun Devils had finished 99th or worse between 2015-17. ASU has held opponents to 30 points or less in 17 of 26 games the previous two seasons after opponents scored at least 30 in 32 of 43 games previously.

The Sun Devils gave up just three plays over 50 yards last season, tied for the fifth-fewest (new ranking after the Sun Bowl) nationally. ASU was also tied for ninth nationally in allowing just three plays of over 50 yards in 2018 after sitting in the bottom 10 nationally in allowing just eight plays over 40 yards, an area the Devils had struggled in in previous seasons (allowing 20, 16, 30, 21 in the previous four seasons and finishing 103rd, 79th, 128th, 110th, respectively).

Pierce's linebackers were key in the Sun Devils staunch run defense in 2019. At the conclusion of the regular season, ASU ranked 21st nationally in allowing just 116.8 rushing yards per game – the best ranking at the end of the regular season for ASU since the 2009 Sun Devils were 19th (108.58 rushing yards per game). ASU allowed 155 or fewer rushing yards in 11 of 12 regular season games, the first time in program history it accomplished the feat since regular seasons expanded to 12 games in the late 1990s.

Under Pierce's guidance, Darien Butler was named the first true sophomore team captain in program history in 2019. Butler would go on to be the seventh-highest graded linebacker in the Pac-12 on run defense, according to Pro Football Focus, while his 18 total quarterback pressures were tied for eighth among the league's linebackers.

Butler finished with 79 tackles on the season, leading the team in the category and adding five tackles for loss, leading the team with three forced fumbles and a sack and a fumble recovery.

Khaylan Kears-Thomas enjoyed a breakout senior campaign under Pierce and was named the team's most Outstanding Linebacker as a result. Kears-Thomas (2019 All-Pac-12 honorable mention selection) led the team in tackles for loss with 11 – the most among non-edge rushing linebackers in the Pac-12 – and finished with 57 total tackles. The senior was a part of five sacks, tied for first among Pac-12 linebackers. Among all linebackers and edge defenders in the Pac-12, he recorded the 16th-best positive run impact percentage at 13.6%.

Pierce's linebacker unit had a big impact in ASU's defensive success in 2018. Starting true freshmen linebackers Merlin Robertson (77 tackles/first) and Butler (70 tackles/tied for second) were the team's top two leaders in tackles.

Robertson also led the team in tackles for loss (8.5), and sacks (5.0) and intercepted one pass on his way to earning Pac-12 Defensive Freshman of the Year honors. He became the first freshman to lead the team in tackles since Jason Shivers in 2001 and the first freshman to lead the team in tackles for loss and sacks since Junior Onyeali in 2010.

Butler finished tied for second on the team in tackles for loss (8.0) and also added one sack and two forced fumbles. Tying with Butler for second in tackles for loss (8.0) was redshirt freshman linebacker Tyler Johnson, who assumed a starting role over the second half of the season, giving the Sun Devils three first-year starters at linebacker.

Earlier this year, the Sun Devils' 2020 recruiting class was 23rd in the nation and fourth in the Pac-12 according to 247Sports' Composite Rankings. Eleven of the 18 freshmen in the class were regarded as four-star prospects by at least one recruiting service.

Following the 2018 season and with one full year under his belt, Pierce helped put together the nation's No. 28 signing class for 2019, according to 247Sports' Composite Rankings – the fifth highest-graded class in the Pac-12. Despite being just weeks on the job in the year prior, Pierce helped rally the 2018 Signing Class to 36th nationally and kept the Sun Devils in the top-half of the Pac-12 recruiting rankings.

During his nine-year NFL career, Pierce played 137 regular season games (and seven playoff games) with the Washington Redskins (2001-04) and New York Giants (2005-09). Pierce captained the Giants' defense for five seasons, including 2007 when he helped anchor the championship team that upset the previously undefeated New England Patriots for a victory in Super Bowl XLII. He was also named to the Pro Bowl that season.

Signed by the Redskins as an undrafted free agent in 2001, Pierce finished his career with 687 tackles, nine sacks and seven interceptions.

Prior to his appointment at ASU, Pierce spent four seasons as the head coach of the Long Beach Poly High School football program following a nine-year career in the NFL. While leading the way at Long Beach Poly, Pierce's student-athletes earned 54 total scholarships to continue their education – 24 of whom did so at the Division I level.

Pierce took over at Long Beach Poly in 2014, where he became the school's first outside hire since 1971 as the program underwent an overhaul. He eventually would lead the Jackrabbits to the 2017 CIF Southern Section quarterfinals where they fell to eventual champion Mater Dei.

Pierce immediately instilled a sense of discipline in his players from the moment he arrived and put an emphasis on academics, raising the minimum GPA required for a student to be eligible for his football team and emphasized preparing his players to be professionals in life beyond high school.

A native of Long Beach, Calif., Pierce played college football at the University of Arizona. As a senior, he had three sacks, 77 tackles (10 for losses), two forced fumbles, one interception, and one blocked kick for the Wildcats. Prior to Arizona, Pierce attended Mt. San Antonio College in Walnut, Calif.

Beyond his on-field accomplishments, Pierce was the spokesperson for the Giants Academy inner city youth program in 2006, and he works with a number of not-for-profit organizations, including YMCA, DARE, Cystic Fibrosis, My Sisters Place, ASC Football Camp, City Meals on Wheels and Make a Wish Foundation. Pierce received the United Way's Man of the Year award in 2007 and was honored by Minority Athletes Networking Inc (M.A.N) as its 2008 'MAN of the Year,' for his excellence in the community. In 2011, Pierce was named to the California Community College Athletics Association's Hall of Fame.

In 2005, Pierce hosted his first annual free football camp for youth in his hometown of Compton, Calif., where it continued for seven years.

In 2006, Pierce started 'Antonio's A-List' at Giants Academy, the Giants charter academic program located in the Louise A. Spencer School in Newark, N.J. 'Antonio's A-List' is a motivational incentive program that rewarded Giants Academy Students that reached certain academic standards each semester and for the entire school year. Pierce visited the school, and accompanied the kids on service trips and preparing meals for the community.

During Antonio's NFL career he played for Marty Schottenheimer, Marvin Lewis, Steve Spurrier, George Edwards, Greg Williams, Joe Gibbs, Steve Spagnuolo and Tom Coughlin.

MARVIN LEWIS

Co-Defensive Coordinator

Bringing decades of NFL coaching experience, Marvin Lewis will serve as co-defensive coordinator for the 2020 campaign, as announced by head coach Herm Edwards on February 4, 2020.

Lewis – a veteran coach of over 25 years in the National Football League – joined the program prior to the 2019 season as Special Advisor to Sun Devil Football and most recently served as the team's interim defensive backs coach for the 2019 Tony the Tiger Sun Bowl.

"Marvin Lewis is someone that I have come to trust wholeheartedly during my career and his coaching acumen will prove to be invaluable as we continue to push this program forward," Edwards said. "He has coached at the highest level of football and spearheaded some elite defenses in the process. That kind of experience cannot be measured and his passion for teaching will extend beyond the student-athletes, but also to our coaching staff itself."

In addition to setting the Bengals' franchise record for career wins (131), Lewis also set the club's head coaching standards for longest tenure (16 seasons), playoff appearances (seven), consecutive playoff appearances (five) and division titles (four). The seven playoff berths the Bengals achieved with Lewis equaled the number the club had in the 35 seasons prior to his arrival.

Under Lewis, the Bengals were one of only four NFL teams to reach the playoffs every year from 2011-15. The 2015 squad's 12-4 record tied the best regular season mark in club annals.

Lewis was the consensus choice for NFL Coach of the Year in 2009, when the Bengals won the AFC North Division while sweeping all six division games. The Bengals also were AFC North champions under Lewis in 2005, '13 and '15.

Named the ninth head coach in Bengals history on Jan. 14, 2003, Lewis started quickly as his 2003 club finished 8-8, six games better than the 2002 club, which represented the biggest improvement in the NFL.

Lewis coached 21 Pro Bowl players during his time in Cincinnati, with nine of those players earning the honor multiple times. In 2018, defensive tackle Geno Atkins earned his seventh Pro Bowl nod, the most ever by a Bengals defensive player.

Lewis came to the Bengals with credentials as a record-setting NFL defensive coordinator, having played a huge role in a championship season. His six seasons (1996-2001) as Baltimore Ravens coordinator included a Super Bowl victory in 2000, when his defense set the NFL record for fewest points allowed in a 16-game campaign (165). That unit clipped 22 points off the previous mark, an achievement that always has the 2000 Ravens as an entry in discussions regarding the best NFL defensive units of all time.

In 2002, the season before he joined the Bengals, Lewis led the Washington Redskins to a No. 5 NFL defensive ranking, serving as assistant head coach as well as defensive coordinator.

Lewis had his first NFL assignment from 1992-95, as linebackers coach for the Pittsburgh Steelers. He aided the development of four Pro Bowl players — Kevin Greene, Chad Brown, Levon Kirkland and Greg Lloyd. Greene has since been inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Lewis developed an impressive "coaching tree" during his Bengals tenure. Five of his former assistants have become NFL head coaches. The list includes former Bengals offensive coordinators Jay Gruden (head coach of the Washington Redskins since 2014) and Hue Jackson (Cleveland Browns, 2016-18), former defensive coordinators Leslie Frazier (Minnesota Vikings 2010-13) and Mike Zimmer (head coach of the Minnesota Vikings since 2014), and former defensive backs coach Vance Joseph (Denver Broncos 2017-18).

Lewis began his coaching career as linebackers coach at his alma mater Idaho State from 1981-84. ISU's team finished 12-1 in Lewis' first season there and won the NCAA Division 1-AA championship. Lewis played LB at Idaho State, earning All-Big Sky Conference honors for three consecutive years (1978-80). He also saw action at quarterback and free safety during his college career. He received his bachelor's degree in physical education from Idaho State in 1981, and earned his master's in athletic administration in '82. He was inducted into Idaho State's Hall of Fame in 2001.

Born Sept. 23, 1958, Lewis attended Fort Cherry High School in McDonald, Pa. (near Pittsburgh), where he was an all-conference quarterback and safety. He also earned high school letters in wrestling and baseball. He and his wife, Peggy, have a daughter, Whitney, and a son, Marcus (Sun Devil Football analyst).

SHAWN SLOCUM

Assistant Head Coach | Special Teams Coordinator

Former NFL assistant and long-time college assistant coach Shawn Slocum enters his sixth season as the associate head coach/special teams coordinator at ASU.

In 2019 the Sun Devil special teams units had another tremendous campaign under Slocum's tutelage.

Senior wide receiver Brandon Aiyuk who earned All-Pac-12 first-team honors for his contributions on offense received the same recognition as a return specialist as he helped ASU finish seventh in the nation in kickoff returns and 17th in punt returns. Aiyuk's 2019 highlights included a 97-yard kickoff return against USC and a 63-yard punt return for a touchdown at Oregon State.

Punter Michael Turk earned All-Pac-12 first-team honors and was a semifinalist for the Ray Guy Award after finishing first in the Pac-12 and 11th in the nation in punting (46.0). Turk's high and booming kicks enabled ASU's punt coverage unit to finish 12th in the nation in net punting (41.6). Turk was honored as the Pac-12 Special Teams Player of the Week and the Ray Guy Punter of the Week following a week one performance in which he set the NCAA, Pac-12 and ASU record for highest average yards per punt in a game with a minimum of five attempts (63.0 yards per punt) in ASU's season-opening 30-7 win over Kent State.

Also helping the Sun Devils rank among the top units in punt coverage was true freshman Case Hatch who earned first-team All-Pac-12 recognition as a specialist after recording the majority of his 11 tackles and a forced fumble on special teams.

A late replacement in the season opener due to injury, Cristian Zendejas assumed the team's primary placekicking duties and would go on to finish ninth in the nation in field goals per game (1.8) and 20th in field goal percentage (85.2).

The Sun Devils had the highest-graded special teams unit in the nation in 2016 according to Pro Football Focus and the second-highest graded group in 2015. Despite replacing three NFL players in 2017 (placekicker Zane Gonzalez, punter Matt Haack and kick returner Tim White), ASU still had the 29th-highest graded special teams unit in the nation in 2017.

Brandon Ruiz was among the top freshmen kickers in the nation in 2017, finishing tied for first in the country among freshmen with 19 field goals made. His 52 total touchbacks were 10th in the nation as well while his 69.33 percent touchback percentage was first among all freshmen in the country and 12th nationally. As a sophomore in 2018, Ruiz finished 21st in the nation in field goals per game (1.38) and 27th in field goal percentage (81.8).

One of the units biggest highlights of 2018 came in ASU's win at USC in which Sun Devil wide receiver/punt returner N'Keal Harry returned a punt 92 yards for a touchdown. In addition to Harry's outstanding athletic ability, the return was also made possible by a few key blocks executed by punt return unit. In addition to earning first-team All-Pac-12 honors as a wide receiver, Harry also earned second-team recognition as a return specialist.

The Sun Devils led the Pac-12 and were second nationally in 2017 with six total blocked kicks on the season while the team's five blocked punts were first in the nation.

After posting a number of impressive accomplishments in 2015, Slocum's special teams units performed at an even higher level in 2016. Leading the way was placekicker and 2016 Lou Groza Award winner Gonzalez, who became just the third player in the history of the Sun Devil football program to receive unanimous All-American honors after setting numerous NCAA records during his illustrious career. Gonzalez, who was selected by the Cleveland Browns in the seventh round of the 2017 NFL Draft, was fourth in the nation and first in the Pac-12 in field goals (23) and seventh in the nation and first in the Pac-12 in field goal percentage (92.0). Gonzalez made an FBS-leading 14 field goals from at least 40 yards and was a remarkable 7-for-9 on attempts from 50 yards or more. That mark, the second-most ever from long distance in an FBS season, includes the longest FG of the year, a 59 yarder that was also the kick to give him the all-time record for career points by a kicker.

Matt Haack turned in a brilliant campaign in 2016 as he finished 18th in the nation and third in the Pac-12 in punting (43.9). As a unit the Sun Devils finished fifth in the nation and second in the Pac-12 in net punting (42.0). Also contributing to ASU's outstanding special teams play in 2016 was Tim White, who finished 10th in the nation in combined kick return yards (963/709 on kickoffs and 254 on punts). In addition, White (punt return) and DJ Calhoun (kickoff) both scored touchdowns on returns.

On the defensive side of the ball, Slocum's outside linebackers were led by Koron Crump, who led the Sun Devils in sacks in 2016 (nine for minus 68 yards) while recording three forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries. Crump, who was named to the Lott IMPACT Trophy Watch List for the 2017 season, also added an interception to go along with his 37 tackles (28 solos stops).

In 2015 Gonzalez continued to be among the best in the country as he finished the season second in the nation in field goals per game (2.0) and 10th in scoring (10.0 ppg). Also turning in a standout season was White, who finished second in the Pac-12 in kick return average (27.0). In addition, White was one of only five Pac-12 players to return a kickoff for a touchdown in 2015 and his 210 combined punt/kickoff return yards vs. West Virginia in the Motel 6 Cactus Bowl were the most in a game by a Pac-12 player last season.

Slocum's coaching also helped Sun Devil linebacker Antonio Longino post an outstanding senior campaign that culminated with Longino earning Pac-12 Honorable Mention recognition. A two-time Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Week in 2015, Longino led the Pac-12 with 22.5 tackles for and 11 sacks, and ranked third in the FBS in tackles for loss and 11th in sacks. His 22.5 tackles for loss ranked as the sixth-highest single-season total in school history.

Slocum started his coaching career as a volunteer assistant at Texas A&M, under his father R.C. Slocum. In 1990, he served as a graduate assistant at the University of Pittsburgh, where he coached the defense. He returned to Texas A&M, coaching tight ends, linebackers, and special teams, from 1991 to 1997. From 1991 to 1993, Slocum helped the Aggies win three straight Southwest Conference championships. Between 1994-97, he coached two all-Americans – Shane Lechler and Lombardi Award winner Dat Nguyen – who both went on to play in the NFL.

During his seven-season coaching tenure at A&M, he was part of a staff that led the Aggies to five bowl games, including four Cotton Bowl Classic appearances. Texas A&M's record was 94-28-2 from 1991-1997. The 94 wins were the sixth-most in the country and also the most wins by any Texas Division I school in any decade.

From 1998-1999, Slocum coached at the University of Southern California, where he tutored Butkus Award winner Chris Claiborne, Zeke Moreno, and Markus Steele. He returned to A&M again and coached the secondary and special teams from 2000-02. In 2005, he became assistant head coach and linebacker coach at Ole Miss, where he coached star linebacker Patrick Willis.

On February 6, 2006, Slocum joined the Green Bay Packers, becoming the assistant special teams coach. He was promoted to special teams coordinator in 2009. During his time in Green Bay the Packers won Super Bowl XLV in 2010, 31-25 over the Pittsburgh Steelers in Arlington, Texas. The Packers also claimed five division championships (2007, 2011, 2012, 2013 and 2014), played in three NFC Championship games (winning one, 2010) and appeared in the NFL Playoffs seven times (2007, 2009, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2013 and 2014). Slocum also was invited to coach in three Pro Bowl games.

Shawn's father, R.C. Slocum, was head coach for Texas A&M from 1989 to 2002 and is the winningest coach in Texas A&M football history.

Born in Monticello, Arkansas, on February 21, 1965, Slocum graduated from Bryan High School in Bryan, Texas, in 1983 and attended Texas A&M University, where he played football as a linebacker. Slocum earned one letter with the team in 1984. He graduated with a B.S. in construction management degree in 1987 from the Texas A&M College of Architecture.

Slocum is currently married to the former Michelle Biehler and the couple has four children.

ZAK HILL

Offensive Coordinator | Quarterbacks

Zak Hill, who spent the previous four seasons with Boise State as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach, was named offensive coordinator for Sun Devil Football, as announced by head coach in Herm Edwards December of 2019.

Hill, who will also work with ASU's quarterback, joined the Boise State staff in January 2016 as co-offensive coordinator and was named the program's sole offensive coordinator prior to the 2017 season. In his four seasons at Boise State, Pro Football Focus graded his offense out in the Top-40 each season and 31st or better in three of those. In 2017 and 2018, PFF scored the Boise State passing game in the Top-15 nationally while the receivers earned a Top-25 score in each of his four seasons.

The 2019 Bronco program entered the bowl season ranked 19th nationally after winning its fourth Mountain West title since joining the conference in 2011. Boise State rode its potent and well-rounded offense to a 12-1 record this season, qualifying for its 18th consecutive bowl game and 22nd-straight season with a winning record – the longest active streak in the country.

The 2019 Bronco offense was 38th in total offense (441.5 ypg) and 14th in the country in averaging 36.8 points per game, despite relying heavily on true freshmen playing at quarterback and running back. Boise State improved in scoring offense in each of Hill's three seasons as the sole offensive coordinator.

Like the Sun Devils, Boise State was one of just four FBS programs to start the 2019 campaign with a true freshman at quarterback in Hank Bachmeier, who exploded on the scene with 407 passing yards – a Boise State record for a debut start – and a road victory against Florida State in the season opener. Bachmeier appeared in just seven games – and left the game early in one of those – due to injury, but accounted for 1,760 yards (251.4 ypg) and nine touchdowns in the games he played.

Despite Bachmeier being out for the final four games of the regular season and the Mountain West Championship, the Broncos rallied to five consecutive victories to end the season and averaged 36.0 points per game during that streak. The Broncos rallied behind senior quarterback Jaylon Henderson, who threw for 944 and 10 touchdowns with only two interceptions and added two rushing touchdowns and over 100 yards on the ground in the final four games of the year.

True freshman running back George Holani rushed for 979 yards on the season – fifth among freshmen running backs in the FBS – and is just 21 yards away from giving Boise State its 11th-straight season with a 1,000-yard back, which would be tied for the second-longest streak in college football history. The Broncos rushed for 174.15 yards per game – the 31st-most in the nation.

On the receiving end, the Broncos had a potent 1-2 punch in senior John Hightower (48 catches, 923 yards, eight touchdowns) and sophomore Khalil Shakir (60 catches, 834 yards, six touchdowns). Boise State's 30 touchdowns by air were 18th nationally at the end of the regular season while the passing offense ranked 35th at 267.4 yards per game.

Shakir was the second-highest graded wide receiver in the nation, according to Pro Football Focus, with a grade of 89.5 – Hill's second receiver to be ranked in the Top-10 nationally by PFF in the last three years. Guard Jake Stetz was the third-highest graded offensive guard in the nation (83.7) while tackle Ezra Cleveland was the 23rd-best graded tackles in the FBS. Tight end John Bates was among the top blocking tight ends in the country (ranked in the Top-20 in both run and pass blocking) while receiving the 21st-highest graded among tight ends in the FBS.

In 2018, quarterback Brett Rypien picked up a fourth-straight All-Mountain West accolade while also earning Mountain West Offensive Player of the Year honors, the first such recognition for a Bronco quarterback since Kellen Moore earned the award in 2011. Rypien concluded his career as the Mountain West's all-time leader in career 300-yard passing games (21), completions (1,036) and passing yards (13,581). He also ranked second in league history in both wins by a starting quarterback (37) and career attempts (1,619), and tied for second in career touchdown passes (90).

Running back Alexander Mattison led the Mountain West and ranked eighth nationally in rushing in 2018 (1,415), giving Boise State 10-straight seasons with a 1,000-yard back, the longest active streak in the country and tied for the third-longest streak in college football history, behind only North Carolina (12; 1973-84) and Texas (11; 1995-2005).

Behind the production of Rypien and Mattison, Boise State concluded the season ranked in the top 25 nationally in both total offense (21st/459.5 yards per game) and scoring offense (20th/35.4 points per game).

Rypien was the 13th-highest graded quarterback in the nation in 2018 while Mattison thrived behind Cleveland, who was the fifth-highest graded tackle in the FBS.

In 2017, Hill's first as the lone offensive coordinator, Boise State saw record-setting production in the passing game. Wide receiver Cedrick Wilson set the Boise State single-season record with 1,511 yards receiving, earning first-team all-league honors. He was the sixth-highest graded wide receiver in the nation (87.7).

Rypien also picked up his third-straight All-MW accolade, while Mattison was honored for the first time following a campaign in which he picked up 1,086 yards rushing.

In 2016, Hill's debut campaign with the Broncos, the Boise State offense led the Mountain West and ranked 21st nationally in total offense (472.8). Hill also oversaw the progression of Rypien, then a sophomore, who garnered his second-straight first-team All-MW accolade after leading the league and ranking 12th nationally with 3,646 passing yards. Rypien also ranked 15th nationally in passing efficiency (155.7).

Hill joined Boise State from Hawai'i, where he was named offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in December 2015. Prior to that, Hill served as passing game coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Eastern Washington for seven seasons (2009-15). In Cheney, Hill coached some of the top quarterbacks in the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS), including Walter Payton Award (given to the nation's top FCS player) finalists Vernon Adams, Jr. (2012-14) and Matt Nichols (2009), and 2014 Grey Cup champion and Calgary Stampeders (CFL) quarterback Bo Levi Mitchell (2010-11).

He helped oversee the offense of an Eastern Washington program that made the FCS playoffs five times over his seven years and captured the 2010 FCS national title. The Eagles also reached the FCS semifinals twice more, in 2012 and 2013, and won or shared the Big Sky Conference crown six times.

Eastern Washington topped the FCS rankings in passing offense (353.3 ypg) in 2015, with quarterback Jordan West finishing the year with 3,002 passing yards (300.2 ypg, second in FCS) and 30 touchdown passes (fourth in FCS). The Eagles also scored 34.6 points per game, 18th-best in FCS.

Hill was a record-breaking quarterback at Central Washington from 1999-2003. He broke more than 20 league records and passed for 8,882 career yards and 76 touchdowns while completing 60.2 percent of his passes. In 2002, Hill led Central Washington to an 11-1 record and was named a third-team All-American. He was inducted into the school's Hall of Fame in 2013.

Following his playing career, Hill became a student assistant at EWU from 2004-05, where he worked with the 2005 Walter Payton Award winner, quarterback Erik Meyer.

Hill then spent three seasons at Hillsboro High School in Oregon, serving as offensive coordinator in 2006-07. He took over as head coach in 2008 and led the school to an appearance in the state Class 5A playoffs.

Hill earned his bachelor's degree in school health education from Central Washington in 2004. He and his wife, Hollie, have one daughter, Valerie Ann, and one son, Brett Thomas.

DAVE CHRISTENSEN

Assistant Coach | Offensive Line

Former University of Wyoming head coach Dave Christensen - a veteran of more than 35 years within college football - enters his third season as the Sun Devil offensive line coach.

Christensen spent the 2017 season with the Sun Devil program in a non-coaching role and, prior to the 2018 season, last coached the offensive line at Texas A&M during the 2015 season.

In 2019 Christensen's leadership was key in helping the Sun Devil offensive line overcome numerous injuries to help the offense finish 16th in the nation in red zone offense, 22nd in yards per completion and 32nd in team passing efficiency. The unit played a big role in helping true freshman quarterback Jayden Daniels lead the team to eight wins while earning ESPN Freshman All-America honors and finishing as a semifinalist for the Shawn Alexander Freshman of the Year Award. The offensive line - which included a pair of true freshman starters for much of the season in LaDarrius Henderson and Dohnovan West (2020 All-Pac-12 honorable mention) - also helped paved the way for running back Eno Benjamin to go over the 1000-yard mark in rushing for the second-straight season while also running for 10 touchdowns. The line was anchored by the play of senior and All-Pac-12 second-team performer Cohl Cabral who was signed by the Los Angeles Rams in April 2020.

In its first season under Christensen's direction, the Sun Devil offensive line helped ASU become the only Power-5 program to have a 3,000-yard passer (Manny Wilkins), a 1,000-yard receiver (N'Keal Harry), and a 1,500-yard rusher (Benjamin). Benjamin finished his first season as a starter with a Pac-12 best and ASU single-season record 1,642 rushing yards and 16 rushing touchdowns. Benjamin broke the school's single-game rushing record (312 yards) in the Sun Devils' win over Oregon State. The line allowed only 16 sacks for the season and was named one of 10 semifinalists for the Joe Moore Award which goes annual to the outstanding offensive line unit in college football. In addition, three players from Christensen's unit - Cabral (second team), Quinn Bailey (honorable mention) and Casey Tucker (honorable mention) - earned All-Pac-12 recognition. Bailey (Denver Broncos) and Tucker (Philadelphia Eagles) both signed rookie free agent contracts.

In 2015 at Texas A&M, Christensen oversaw the offensive line and run game under head coach Kevin Sumlin. The Aggies were 8-4 during the regular season and advanced to the Music City Bowl.

Under Christensen, the A&M rushing offense improved 20 spots in the national rankings in yards per game. His offensive lines rush blocking grade was rated 38th nationally and 19th among the Power Five programs according to Pro Football Focus while the pass blocking was 21st among the Power Five teams.

Christensen arrived in College Station after spending a year with the Utah Utes, where he was the program's offensive coordinator and tight ends coach. During the 2014 campaign, the Utah rushing attack was ranked third in the Pac-12 and 39th nationally at 190.4 yards per game while Devontae Booker finished second in the league at 116.3 yards per game.

That season, the Utah offensive line was also responsible for the 24th-best pass blocking grade in the country according to PFF.

From 2009-13, Christensen was the head coach at Wyoming where he compiled a 27-35 record in five seasons. In 2009, Christensen became the first Cowboy head coach to win a bowl game in his debut season when he led Wyoming to a 35-28 win over Fresno State in the New Mexico Bowl. Two years later, Christensen was named the 2011 Mountain West Coach of the Year after the Cowboys compiled an 8-5 overall record, including a 5-2 record against MWC opponents.

He became a head coach after serving 17 years as an assistant for head coach Gary Pinkel at Toledo (1992-2000) and Missouri (2001-08). Christensen coached the offensive line at both schools and was the offensive coordinator from 1997-2008, including his entire stay at Missouri.

While at Missouri, Christensen devised a no-huddle attack that helped the Tigers advance to the Big 12 Championship Game in 2007 and 2008. In the 2007 season, Christensen's offense used this scheme to good effect by scoring a school record 558 points.

Additionally, Missouri ranked fifth in total offensive yards (490.29 per game), eighth in scoring offense (39.86 points per game), and ninth in passing yards (314.07 per game). The same season propelled Chase Daniel to Heisman finalist status. Martin Rucker and Jeremy Maclin were named consensus All-Americans, making it the first time two Tigers were named as such in the same season. Christensen himself was a finalist for the Broyles Award and Rivals.com named him as the Offensive Coordinator of the Year.

In 2008, the Tigers finished fourth in the nation in passing offense (330.4 yards per game), No. 6 in scoring offense (42.2) and No. 8 in total offense (484.1).

The Tigers were nationally ranked offensively throughout Christensen's tenure as the offensive coordinator, which followed a successful stint at Toledo. During his nine years as a Toledo assistant (the last four as the offensive coordinator), the Rockets set numerous school records on offense while winning one Mid-American Conference championship and two MAC West titles (tying for another).

Christensen also served assistant coaching stints at Western Washington (1983), Eastern Washington (1986-87), Washington (1988-89, graduate assistant) and Idaho State (1990-91).

As an undergraduate, Christensen played offensive line at Washington from 1980-82. He earned a bachelor's degree from Western Washington in 1985 and a master's degree from Eastern Washington in 1988.

SHAUN AGUANO

Assistant Coach | Running Backs

Shaun Aguano, one of the most decorated coaches in Arizona High School football history, joined the Sun Devil football program as running backs coach in January 2019.

"I am so excited for the opportunity to be a Sun Devil," Aguano said. "This is a dream come true for me and my family. Having the chance to work for Coach (Herm) Edwards and his incredible staff is exciting."

In Aguano's first season tutoring the Sun Devil running backs, Eno Benjamin rushed for 1,083 yards and 10 touchdowns in 2019 on his way to earning First Team Pac-12 All-Conference honors for the second consecutive season. In reaching the 1,000-yard rushing mark for the second-straight year, he became the first Sun Devil running back since Freddie Williams (1974-75) to accomplish the feat in consecutive years. Benjamin, who was drafted by the Arizona Cardinals in the seventh round of the 2020 NFL Draft, was more than just a ball carrier as a running back, as he offered versatility that allowed him to contribute as a receiver and in pass protection. His 347 receiving yards in 2019 were sixth among all FBS running backs and his 42 receptions tied for fifth in the nation.

In eight seasons as head coach at Chandler High School, Aguano led the Wolves to an 88-19 record and four state championships. In 2018, Aguano won his third consecutive state championship (fourth in five years) as the Wolves rolled to a record-setting 65-28 win over Perry High School in the 2018 6A title game. Chandler earned the school's first ever state championship when it defeated rival Hamilton in the 2014 Division I AIA State Championship, giving Aguano the first of four titles. Former Sun Devil standout wide receiver and 2019 NFL first round draft choice N'Keal Harry and current Sun Devil defensive back Chase Lucas played for Aguano during his first state championship run.

"Shaun brings a combination of coaching knowledge, connection with the community and the fact that he is a great man, father and husband to ASU," ASU head coach Herm Edwards said. "I have a long history with Shaun, going back to coaching in the annual Under Armour game. I have a high regard for him. I'm excited to be able to add him to our staff."

Under Aguano, Chandler HS achieved unprecedented success and was recognized as one of the nation's top high school programs. He compiled an outstanding 63-8 mark over his last five seasons. During that stretch, Chandler finished in the MaxPreps National Top-25 three times, finding itself ranked as high as 12th in the country (2015 & 2016). The Wolves occupied the top spot in the final Arizona High School rankings in each of Aguano's last three campaigns. Additionally, they earned victories over Valdosta (Ga.) and Miami Northwestern (Fla.) in the Geico Bowl Series, an event that pits state champions against each other at the end of the season.

Running backs thrived under Aguano's guidance as Chandler had a running back accumulate more than 2,000 yards in three consecutive seasons. Three of his former backfield pupils – T.J. Green (Utah) and Drake Anderson (Northwestern) and DeCarlos Brooks (Cal) – are currently on Power Five rosters.

Aguano served as an offensive coordinator in the 2019 Under Armour All-American game and has previously coached at both the Army All-American Game and Semper Fidelis Bowl.

In 2013, Aguano helped Chandler snap a 17-game losing streak to arch-rival Hamilton High School. Before departing, he led the Wolves to six consecutive victories over the Huskies.

Aguano took over as head coach of Chandler High School after serving as the offensive coordinator. He spent 10 years as an assistant at Chandler High School after earning his degree in financial management from Linfield College in Oregon, where he was a running back and four-year letter winner.

Aguano is joined in Tempe by his wife, Kristin, and their four children, Nainoa, Taylor, Bryn, and Kalia.

ROBERT RODRIGUEZ

Assistant Coach | Defensive Line

Former Minnesota Vikings assistant defensive line coach Robert Rodriguez was named defensive line coach at Arizona State on February 10, 2020.

Rodriguez completed his fifth season with the Vikings in 2019, serving as the team's assistant defensive line coach. Rodriguez worked closely with veteran defensive line coach and co-defensive coordinator Andre Patterson in their fifth season together with the Vikings. Prior to that, Rodriguez served as the linebackers coach for seven seasons at the University of Texas-El Paso.

"Robert Rodriguez has established himself as a strong up-and-coming coach at the highest level of football and has worked within one of the most dominant defensive organizations of the past several seasons in the Vikings," ASU head coach Herm Edwards said. "But he also has numerous years of collegiate coaching experience and I feel strongly that the combination of his professional and collegiate coaching abilities will prove to be a vital asset along our defensive front."

"My family, my wife and I are ecstatic for the opportunity to go to Arizona State to work with best staff we could ask for," Rodriguez said. "Getting the opportunity work with Herm Edwards, Marvin Lewis, Antonio Pierce and that caliber of coaches is one of the reasons that we even looked outside the National Football League. We are all in. Once we got there and saw what they're trying to build, we knew that this was the place that we wanted to be."

For the fifth consecutive season, the 2019 Viking defense ranked in the top half of the NFL in total defense and were tied for fifth in the league in allowing just 18.9 points per game. The Vikings were fifth in the NFL with 48.0 sacks during the regular season and 13th in the league in rushing yards allowed per game (108.0). All-Pro defensive end Danielle Hunter continued to lead the charge, finishing fourth in the league with 14.5 sacks for the second consecutive season, earning his second Pro Bowl selection in the process.

The 2018 Vikings ranked fourth in NFL total defense and fourth in scoring defense, the third-straight season finishing in the top-five of both categories. The team led the NFL in third-down defense for the second-straight season, limiting teams to 30.5 percent on conversions attempts. The Vikings talented defensive front played a key part in the performance. The unit was led by Hunter, whose 14.5 sacks were a team-high and he earned his first career Pro Bowl berth while being named a Second-Team Associated Press All-Pro selection. Hunter's breakout season spurred a defense that recorded 50 sacks, the most under head coach Mike Zimmer and tied for the third-most in team history. The defense set a franchise record with 10 sacks vs. Detroit (11/4) and followed up later in the season with nine sacks against Miami (12/16).

In 2017, the defensive line once again provided a lethal pass rush that rattled opposing quarterbacks and stopped the run at an impressive rate. Defensive end Everson Griffen (third honor) and defensive tackle Linval Joseph (second honor) earned trips to the Pro Bowl for the second-straight year while Griffen also received his first All-Pro honor (second-team). The defense finished out the regular season ranked first in total and scoring defense, allowing just 15.8 points per game and 275.9 yards per game. Joseph was crucial in stopping the run as the Minnesota defense surrendered just 20 runs of 10+ yards, tops in the league and tied with the San Francisco 49ers in 1995 for the fewest since 1991. Griffen began the year with a sack in each of the team's first eight games, tied for the longest streak to start a season in NFL history, and helped hold opponents to a 25.2 percent 3rd-down conversion rate, best in the NFL since 1991.

The Vikings defense ascended to No. 3 in the NFL in 2016, powered by strong and consistent play along the line. The Vikings ranked tied for fourth in the NFL with 41 team sacks, 34 of those coming from the defensive line, which was the second-most as a unit in the NFL. The line was represented at the Pro Bowl by Griffen (second honor) and Joseph made his first appearance. Joseph notched 100 tackles on the season and second-year player Hunter led the club with 12.5 sacks, putting him in a tie for 3rd in the NFL. The Vikings defensive line accounted for two touchdowns and a safety with Hunter returning a fumble for a touchdown and notching the safety and Griffen returning a fumble for a score. Griffen was named NFC Defensive Player of the Week for his game at Carolina (9/25) when he had a season-high 3.0 sacks.

In 2015, Everson Griffen led the team with 10.5 sacks (4th in the NFC) on his way to his first career Pro Bowl. Hunter, a third-round selection out of LSU, ranked second in the NFL for sacks by a rookie with 6.0. He posted the second-most sacks on the Vikings and fifth-most by a rookie in team history. Nose tackle Linval Joseph was a dominant force in his second year as a Viking, and he led the line with 71 tackles. Joseph (Week 9 vs. STL) and Griffen (Week 17 at GB) earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors. Hunter was named to the All-Rookie team by the PFWA. The DL accounted for 30 of the 43 team sacks during the regular season. Only five RBs reached 100+ rushing yards in 2015. The defense ranked fifth in the NFL only allowing 19.3 points per game.

From 2008-14, Rodriguez coached the linebackers and special teams at his alma mater, Texas-El Paso.

During the 2013 season, the Miners' special teams unit was sparked by Autrey Golden, who under the direction of Rodriguez averaged 27.6 yards per kickoff return, which ranked 10th nationally, and tied for second nationally in kickoffs returned for TDs (2). In 2011, linebacker Isaiah Carter finished with 54 tackles and was named All-Conference USA honorable mention for the second-consecutive season.

Rodriguez, who started his playing days with the Miners, ranks in the top-five among UTEP's all-time leading tacklers with 443 career tackles, including 33 TFLs. He led the Western Athletic Conference in tackles in three of four seasons with the Miners and was named the WAC Defensive Player of the Year following his senior season in 2004, after being credited with 121 tackles and 16 TFLs and was selected to play in the 2005 East/West All-Star Game.

In his professional playing career, Rodriguez spent time with the Carolina Panthers and Tennessee Titans (2005) before playing for Cologne in the NFL Europa (2006) and the Calgary Stampeders of the CFL (2006-07).

A native of El Paso, Texas, Rodriguez was a standout RB at Montwood High School, earning All-City Offensive MVP as a senior. Rodriguez and wife, Holly, have sons, Caleb and Jesse.

PRENTICE GILL

Assistant Coach | Wide Receivers

Assistant Recruiting Coordinator

Prentice Gill – who most recently served as an offensive analyst at Oregon – joined Sun Devil Football as wide receivers coach/assistant recruiting coordinator in December 2019.

"Prentice is a young, up-and-coming star in our business. He's an excellent recruiter and he's already demonstrated that with us," ASU head coach Herm Edwards said. "He understands the DNA of the type of player that it takes to win. He can identify those players and recruit them to our model. He's worked at USC and at Oregon, so he's very familiar with our conference. He'll add a wealth of information and recruiting knowledge to our staff."

Gill has extensive experience with two of the premier programs in the Pac-12, most recently spending the 2019 season as an offensive analyst at Oregon. Prior to that, Gill spent three seasons (2016-18) as a graduate assistant at USC where he worked primarily with the wide receivers. He was also a staff assistant in the USC football office in 2014. Gill is regarded as a talented young recruiter with strong ties in the Southern California area.

The 2019 Oregon Ducks won the Pac-12 Championship and the 2020 Rose Bowl. At the conclusion of the regular season, the Duck offense rated as the eighth-highest graded unit in the FBS, according to Pro Football Focus. Johnny Johnson III emerged in a big player over the final month of the season, recording 422 yards over the final four games with five touchdowns after having just 396 yards and two touchdowns in the first nine games of the year.

The 2018 Trojans featured a trio of talented receivers in Michael Pittman, Tyler Vaughns and Amon-Ra St. Brown, who accounted for over 2,000 receiving yards between them.

In 2017, USC was 16th nationally in passing offense while setting school season records for passing yards (4,157) and passing first downs (192). Wide receiver Deontay Burnett had 86 catches for 1,114 yards with nine touchdowns as USC played in the 2017 Cotton Bowl.

In 2016, USC was 25th in pass offense (276.4) and wide receiver JuJu Smith-Schuster moved up to fourth on USC's career receptions list and was an NFL Draft second rounder as USC advanced in the Rose Bowl.

Gill spent 2015 as a graduate assistant at San Jose State, working with the defensive backs. The Spartans won the Cure Bowl.

Gill began his coaching career in 2012 as the receivers coach at Los Angeles (Calif.) Harbor College (the team played in the Golden State Bowl) and he held a similar position at Long Beach (Calif.) City College for the 2013 season.

Gill was a wide receiver at Old Dominion for two seasons (2010-11). As a junior in 2010, he had 41 catches for 686 yards (16.7 avg) with five touchdowns, including a trio of 100-yard outings. As senior in 2011, Gill caught 42 passes for 591 yards (14.1 avg) with seven scores as the Monarchs advanced to the second round of the NCAA FCS playoffs.

Gill spent two seasons (2008-09) as a wide receiver at Los Angeles Harbor Junior College. As a 2008 freshman, he had 18 catches for 216 yards (12.0 avg) with a touchdown. As a 2009 sophomore, he had 48 receptions for 651 yards (13.6 avg) with five touchdowns.

Gill was a wide receiver and defensive back at Cathedral High in Los Angeles (Calif.), where he caught 55 passes for 772 yards (14.0 avg) with five touchdowns and made 29 tackles and three interceptions as a 2007 senior. He previously played at Narbonne High in Harbor City (Calif.).

Gill received his bachelor's degree in sociology from Old Dominion in 2012 and studied for his master's degree in communication management at USC.

DEREK HAGAN

Assistant Coach | Tight Ends

Arizona State University Hall of Fame Inductee Derek Hagan, who graduated from ASU as the Pac-12 Conference's all-time leader in receptions, was promoted to the coaching staff as co-wide receivers coach in December 2019 after serving as an analyst for two seasons.

"We are extremely pleased to be adding Derek Hagan to our coaching staff," said ASU head coach Herm Edwards. "I am enthusiastic about what Derek brings to the table as not only one of the greatest receivers in school history, but as a former NFL player as well. He will be a valuable asset to our staff."

"With all of the positive things that are happening with Sun Devil Football I wanted to be a part of that," says Hagan. "I wanted to do something to help Coach Edwards and the staff take the program to the next level. I had a nice high school career, but ASU is the place in which I elevated my game. It started daily in practice and eventually carried over to the games. There's nothing like the Maroon and Gold."

Hagan, who was inducted into the ASU Sports Hall of Fame in 2015, played wide receiver for the Sun Devils from 2002-05, a period in which the program enjoyed some of the greatest offensive success in school history. He appeared in 50 games across four seasons at Arizona State, finishing his career as one of the greatest receivers in both school and Pac-12 history.

Hagan left Arizona State as the Pac-12 record holder for career receptions with 258, ranks second all-time in the conference with 3,939 yards, and broke five school records, including receptions, receiving yards, receiving touchdowns, 100-yard games and receiving yards per game as he averaged more than 100 yards per game in his final two seasons.

The two-time semifinalist for the Biletnikoff Award earned First-Team All-Pac 12 honors after his final season in Maroon and Gold. A captain during his senior season, Hagan is the owner of three of the top seven highest single-season receiving yardage totals in school history and finished with more than 150 receiving yards in eight games. He caught a pass in 41 consecutive games to end his career and had at least one reception in 48 of 50 career games.

He was selected in the third round of the National Football League draft by the Miami Dolphins, where he spent three seasons. Hagan would move on to play for the New York Giants, Oakland Raiders and Buffalo Bills before ending his career with the Tennessee Titans. Hagan compiled 148 receptions for 1,734 yards and seven touchdowns during his nine-year NFL career.

Before joining the Sun Devil Football staff, Hagan worked alongside Tim Healey and Jeff Van Raaphorst as a sideline reporter covering ASU football games for The Sun Devil Sports Network.

CHRIS HAWKINS

Assistant Coach | Defensive Backs

Chris Hawkins - who most recently worked as a graduate assistant at USC - joined Sun Devil Football as defensive backs coach in December 2019.

"I am very excited to announce the appointment of Chris Hawkins as defensive backs coach at ASU. Chris impressed our staff as a young, up-and-coming coach who has a very bright future in our profession," ASU head coach Herm Edwards said. "Chris played the position at an elite level at USC and the young players in our secondary will benefit from his knowledge and experience. Chris will be instrumental in recruiting Southern California for us as well."

Hawkins was a graduate assistant at USC in 2019, working directly with the defensive backs.

Among the highlights of the Trojan secondary in 2019 was Pac-12 second-team defensive back Talanoa Hufanga, who finished the season with 90 tackles, 7.5 tackles for loss and two forced fumbles. Fellow defensive back Isaiah Pola-Mao led the Pac-12 with four interceptions.

Sophomore defensive back Olajiah Griffin was especially efficient for the Trojans last season, earning Pac-12 Honorable Mention honors while ranking third among Pac-12 corners in defensive success percentage (60.3) by Pro Football Focus - a measure of a team's defensive success rate when the defender is targeted in coverage. Opponents earned a first down or touchdown just 24.1 percent of the time when targeting Griffin, the fourth-lowest total in the Pac-12.

When targeted, opponents recorded just a 67.7 NFL quarterback rating against Griffin - the fourth-lowest total in the Pac-12. Griffin allowed just 54 yards after the catch on the season and record five pass breakups. Opponents completed just 42.6 percent of their targets against Griffin - the fourth lowest total in the league.

The USC secondary was fourth in the Pac-12 in passing yards allowed this season while also finishing fourth in the league in passes defended.

Hawkins spent 2018 working in commercial real estate. Prior to that, he lettered four seasons (2014-17) as part of USC's secondary, the first year as a cornerback and the final three at safety. He had 234 tackles, four interceptions and six deflections in his career while starting 36 games.

Hawkins earned All-Pac-12 honorable mention recognition in 2016 and 2017. As a 2017 senior, he captained the 2017 Trojans and won the team's Trojan Way Leadership Award, notching 88 tackles on the season. He was on USC teams that played in the 2014 and 2015 Holiday Bowls, 2017 Rose Bowl and 2018 Cotton Bowl. He redshirted in 2013.

Hawkins was USC's 2017 representative on the Pac-12's Student-Athlete Leadership Team and also was one of two student-athletes to represent the Pac-12 at the 2017 NCAA Legislation meeting in Chicago.

He received his bachelor's degree in policy, planning and development from USC in 2017 and was pursuing his master's degree in communication management from USC. Hawkins was in training camp with the Seattle Seahawks in 2018. He was a prep All-American as a 2012 senior at Rancho Cucamonga (Calif.) High.

JOE CONNOLLY

Head Coach | Sports Performance

Joe Connolly - formerly the assistant athletics director for sports performance at UMass - enters his third season as the head coach for sports performance for Sun Devil Football.

In his first season with the Sun Devil football program, Connolly worked with 2019 NFL draft choices WR N'Keal Harry (first round) and Renell Wren (fourth round). Prior to the draft Wren was singled out as a player who had raised his draft profile at the NFL combine where the former Sun Devil defensive lineman had a breakout performance. Also working in Connolly's program in 2018 were 2019 NFL rookie free agent signees OL Quinn Bailey, DB Jalen Harvey, OL Casey Tucker and QB Manny Wilkins. Connolly's program also played a big role in helping Sun Devil wide receiver Brandon Aiyuk become a 2020 first round draft making it consecutive years that ASU had a receiver taken in the first round.

Connolly joined ASU from UMass where worked primarily with the football team. In his first year with the program, Connolly helped develop Elijah Wilkinson - a 6-6, 329-pound offensive lineman who signed with the Denver Broncos as an undrafted free agent and concluded the 2018 season as a starter on the Denver offensive line.

Connolly also oversaw the strength and conditioning development of tight end Adam Breneman. In 2017 Breneman was named to the USA TODAY College Football All-American Team as one of the two best tight ends in the country. He finished the 2017 campaign as the top-ranked tight end in the nation for receptions per game (5.8) and second for most receiving yards per game (69.5). Breneman became just the third Minuteman selected to a major, national All-America team.

A native of Barnstable, Mass., Connolly arrived in Amherst after seven seasons working with the football program at the University of South Carolina with Hall of Fame coach Steve Spurrier. During his time with the Gamecocks, he coached 45 NFL Draft picks, including the 2014 No. 1 selection Jadeveon Clowney. The Gamecocks went on to six straight bowl games, winning the SEC East in 2010, and went 5-2 against in-state rival Clemson during Connolly's tenure. South Carolina was also one of three Power 5 teams that won 11 games for three consecutive years.

Prior to his arrival in Columbia, S.C., Connolly served as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at the University of Louisville. He worked with the Cardinal football program, primarily focusing on the skill position players. Connolly began his professional career at Harvard in 2007, assisting with all 41 sports, including the league's championship football team. He was hired as a full-time assistant strength and conditioning coach with the Crimson in 2008 and served as the head strength and conditioning coach for men's volleyball while continuing to assist with the other programs.

Connolly holds a Master of Science in physical education with a concentration in strength and conditioning from Bridgewater State, graduating magna cum laude in 2007. He is a 2004 graduate of the University of Hartford, where he earned degrees in criminal justice and sociology. He was a four-year letterwinner in baseball and was given the Senior Award for great sportsmanship and perseverance. Connolly is Strength and Conditioning Coach Certified (SCCC) by the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches' Association (CSCCA) and Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist by the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA).

Connolly is a current competitor in Olympic weightlifting, drug-free powerlifting, Highland games and strongman competitions. He is joined in Tempe by his wife, Shalona.

ADAM BRENEMAN

Graduate Assistant - Offense

A two-time All-American tight end during his playing career, Adam Breneman joined the Sun Devil football coaching staff as an offensive graduate assistant in February 2020. In his role, Breneman works closely with the tight ends and special teams.

Breneman was a freshman all-America tight end at Penn State in 2013. He holds the school record for longest touchdown reception by a tight end in school history. After briefly retiring from football in 2016 due to injury, Breneman transferred to UMass in July 2016 where he was a consensus two-time All-American on his way to becoming the program's all-time leader in receiving by a tight end (149 receptions, 1,758 yards and 15 TDs). Breneman was a two-time John Mackey Award Semi-Finalist and was nominated for the 2017 Jason Witten Man of the Year Award.

After his college career finished at UMass, Breneman was a Senior Bowl nominee and widely-projected to be a top draft pick in the 2018 draft. However, his knee injury forced his retirement from football before the draft.

Breneman was a high school football All-American in 2013 at Cedar Cliff High School in Camp Hill (PA). He was the No. 2 tight end in the nation, a four-star recruit and an Under Armor All-American.

Breneman holds his undergraduate degree in Business Management from Penn State and his Master's of Business Administration degree from UMass.

TYSON
MCDANIEL

Graduate Assistant - Offense

Tyson McDaniel is in his second season as a graduate assistant for Sun Devil football.

In his role, McDaniel assists with the offense with specific concentration on the offensive line. In 2019, McDaniel worked with ASU's running backs.

A graduate of Mesa Mountain View High School, McDaniel played for two years at Snow College in Utah before returning to Tempe to earn his undergraduate degree in Business/Organizational Leadership. He earned his graduate degree in Business Broadcasting from Walter Cronkite School of Journalism and Mass Communication.

STEVEN BEARD

Graduate Assistant - Defense

The 2020 season will be Steven Beard's third season working with Sun Devil Football, his first as a graduate assistant on the coaching staff.

Beard, who will primarily work with the Sun Devil defense, started at ASU as a recruiting assistant (2018) before transitioning to a manager's position for the 2019 season.

Beard initially joined the coaching ranks as offensive coordinator for Canyon State Academy (AZ) in 2013. After serving as running backs coach/assistant offensive coordinator at Omaha Northwest High School (NE) in 2015, Beard returned to Canyon State Academy where he was offensive coordinator for two seasons (2016-17).

Beard, who earned his BS in Criminology and Criminal Justice from ASU, played for both Solano College (CA) and Mesa College (AZ) before playing professionally for the Wenatchee Venom, a professional arena team in Wenatchee, Wash.

SHAUN PRATER

Graduate Assistant - Defense

Shaun Prater is in his first season as a graduate assistant for Sun Devil football.

In his role, Prater works with the defense with a focus on ASU's defensive backs. Prater's other responsibilities include data entry, preparing practice cards, scripts and plans, coaching the 'Look' team and reviewing formations and tendencies.

Prater was drafted by the Cincinnati Bengals in the fifth round of the 2012 NFL Draft. In addition to the Bengals, Prater also played for the Philadelphia Eagles, Minnesota Vikings, Indianapolis Colts, Denver Broncos, and Arizona Cardinals. In 2013, Prater earned NFC North Player of the Week honors. That same year, Prater was ranked the 13th best cornerback in the NFL by Pro Football Focus.

Prior to joining ASU's staff, Prater was a program assistant for EXOS Pro Elite Fellowship in Phoenix. Prater assisted the EXOS staff with daily operations, scheduling and planning for all NFL Trust Programs. He was also responsible for helping prepare defensive backs for the 2020 NFL Combine and active NFL players for their upcoming season.

Prater was a four-year starter at the University of Iowa, where he earned First-Team All-Big Ten honors in 2010 and 2011.

Prater earned his undergraduate degree in Global Health Studies from the University of Iowa in 2017 and his graduate degree in Sports Law and Business from ASU's Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law in 2019.

JORDAN
DIAZ

Asst. Dir. - Sports

Performance

Jordan Diaz joined the ASU Football Sports Performance staff in February 2018. In his role, Diaz assists sports performance head coach Joe Connolly in programming, coaching and implementation of the football team's strength and conditioning program.

Diaz originally walked on to the football team at South Carolina. He would go on to earn a scholarship in his final season in 2014. After earning his undergraduate degree in exercise science from South Carolina, Diaz interned with the South Carolina strength and conditioning staff before being named a graduate assistant. In that role he worked with football and the men's and women's track and field programs.

Diaz, who earned his master's degree in exercise science from Logan University, also worked as a performance coach at Kalinowski Performance Academy and as a performance coach/personal trainer at the New Jersey Athletic Club/Parisi Speed School.

CLAYTON KIRVEN

Asst. Dir. - Sports Performance

Clayton Kirven joined the Sun Devil sports performance staff in 2020. In his role, Kirven assists ASU head sports performance coach Joe Connolly with all facets of the football team's strength and conditioning program.

Kirven came to ASU from UMass where he was the head strength and conditioning coach for the UMass men's hockey team for three years. In addition to his duties with the hockey team, Kirven also supervised the strength and conditioning programs for the UMass women's tennis and baseball teams.

Kirven arrived at the University of Massachusetts in Sept., 2016 as a strength and conditioning intern. During his first year with the athletic department, Kirven worked primarily with the football and women's basketball programs.

Previously, Kirven was an intern at the University of Wyoming, the University of Denver and the University of South Dakota.

While lettering on the football team, Kirven received his bachelor's degree in Kinesiology and Health Promotion at the University of Wyoming and his master's degree in Health and Human development at Montana State University.

SUPPORT STAFF

COLBERT CALHOUN

GA - Sports Performance

Colbert Calhoun is in his third year working with Joe Connolly's sports performance staff that oversees the Sun Devil football team's strength and conditioning program.

Prior to arriving in Tempe, Calhoun interned with UMass' strength and conditioning staff where he worked with UMass' hockey team.

Calhoun played in 24 games with eight starts at linebacker during his two-year career at UMass. He played in every game both seasons and was also a regular contributor on special teams.

Calhoun started his college career at San Bernardino Valley College where he was a two-time captain. During his two-year stint, Calhoun collected 186 tackles, three interceptions, four forced fumbles and 15 tackles for loss. He earned all-state and all-region honors in 2014 and helped lead the squad to a 9-2 record and second-place finish in league play in 2015.

Calhoun earned his undergraduate degree in Sociology from UMass in 2018.

NATE WAINWRIGHT

Associate Athletic Director - Chief of Staff

Nate Wainwright enters his third season with the Sun Devil Football program, his second as chief of staff/associate athletic director.

From 2013 through 2017, Wainwright worked with Mason Dixon Energy, Precision Oil and Gas, and LCS - Clarity Pointe Little Rock where he was the Executive Director of a 100% Alzheimer's and Dementia Memory Care Community.

Prior to his current appointment, Wainwright last worked in athletics as the associate director of athletics at Lehman College from 2010 to 2012. He supervised and coordinated day-to-day operations for 17 NCAA Division III varsity sports.

Before assuming the position at Lehman, Wainwright worked for three years from 2006 to 2009 as the manager of football operations and player development for the Kansas City Chiefs where he oversaw all day to day, game day and travel operations for the team. Wainwright served as Herm Edwards' assistant in addition to assisting with the scouting of free agents and draft-eligible players. He also assisted in the coaching and management of the defense.

Wainwright was the executive administrator to the head coach for the New York Jets from 2001 to 2006. His duties included assisting the head coach and defensive coordinator, organizing and coaching the scout team, producing the defensive playbook for the team, aiding in the coaching of defensive backs during practice and games and assisting with all operations associated with the team.

Wainwright started his career in 1998 as a tickets sales associate for the New Orleans Saints.

Wainwright graduated from the University of Iowa in 1998 with a bachelor's degree in communications studies.

TIM CASSIDY

Sr. Associate Athletic Director - Football Operations

Tim Cassidy joined the Arizona State University football program as the Senior Associate Athletic Director of Football in January 2012. Cassidy spent the previous four seasons as the Associate Athletic Director for football at Texas A&M University and is widely considered one of the top football administrators in the country.

Cassidy's fundraising efforts were instrumental in securing gifts from benefactors for ASU's Student Athlete Facility that opened in 2017. The 118,669-square-foot structure serves as the home of Sun Devil Football. Cassidy's expertise was also pivotal in designing various aspects of the $57 million project, which set a new standard for such facilities in excellence and innovation in fulfilling all the daily needs of student-athletes.

Cassidy had 23 years of experience at Texas A&M rising from graduate assistant to recruiting coordinator, to assistant athletic director, to associate athletic director. During his career at Texas A&M, Cassidy was part of several championship teams. He was part of the 1985 and 1986 Southwest Conference Champions, the 1991, 1992 and 1993 Southwest Conference Championship squads, as well as the 1997, 1998 and 2010 Big 12 South title teams and the 1998 overall Big 12 Champion unit.

Cassidy coordinated travel, recruiting, budget and staffing for the football office, assisted with scheduling and oversaw the compliance, strength and conditioning, equipment and academic support units regarding football and he supervised the football support staffs.

While serving as recruiting coordinator at Texas A&M, Cassidy had a proven eye for identifying the nation's best talent as he assisted with the recruitment of quarterback Johnny Manziel (winner of the 2012 Heisman Trophy, Davey O'Brien Award, Manning Award, AP Player of the Year and was a consensus all-American), defensive tackle Ndamukong Suh (winner of the 2009 Outland Trophy, Lombardi Award, Bronco Nagurski Trophy, Chuck Bednarik Award and AP Player of the Year) and offensive tackle Luke Joeckel (winner of the 2012 Outland Trophy).

Cassidy served as the associate athletic director for football at the University of Nebraska before his recent stint with the Aggies. In addition to working with the football staff and assisting in recruiting efforts, Cassidy was a key member of the athletic administration with the Huskers.

With more than 35 years of experience working in college football, Cassidy was instrumental in the planning of the Tom and Nancy Osborne Athletic Complex that houses the Nebraska football team, coaches' offices, training room, weight room and administrative offices. He also assisted with the planning for the Texas A&M Bright Football Complex and the Nye Academic Center - a $28 million venture. The Bright Complex houses all of the football areas while the Nye Academic Center is an academic area for all Aggie student-athletes.

Cassidy, who has been a member of staffs that have earned a combined 25 appearances in bowl games (including Sugar, Cotton, Alamo and Holiday), had three tours of duty with the Aggies. He came to A&M from Morningside College where he was an assistant football coach from 1981-83. He joined Jackie Sherrill's Texas A&M staff as a graduate assistant in recruiting in 1983-84 and was promoted to recruiting coordinator in 1985-86. Cassidy was also the recruiting coordinator at the University of Florida from 1987-88.

Cassidy and his wife Nancy have three children: Ryan (35), Austin (31) and Danielle (30). His wife is a senior accounting lecturer at ASU's W.P. Carey School of Business.

MARKUS ALLEYNE

Assistant Athletic Director - Operations

Markus Alleyne is in his fifth season with Sun Devil Football, his first as assistant athletic director for football operations after serving as director of player development.

Prior to his appointment at ASU Alleyne was at Iowa State where he had two separate stints working in football operations over a six-year period. Alleyne initially joined the Cyclone football program as assistant director of operations in 2009. In 2013 he came to the Valley to work for the Fiesta Bowl before returning to Iowa State later in the year as Assistant Athletics Director of Football Operations.

In his most recent position at Iowa State, Alleyne coordinated the daily, weekly and monthly schedules of the Iowa State coaching staff, players and support staff. He also oversaw the football budget and the Gridiron Club and arranged trade-out for a variety of different team functions.

Alleyne, a native of Montreal, served as director of player relations at Akron for two seasons prior to his arrival at Iowa State. He spent his initial two UA campaigns as a football operations assistant. Alleyne also coordinated the Zips' community service projects.

In his position at Akron, he helped with administrative duties, including coordination of team travel, summer camps and recruiting visits. Alleyne also served as the UA football program's liaison with the NFL. In addition, he was the school's academic support services contact.

Prior to joining the Akron staff Alleyne was an intern under the assistant general manager for the Montreal Alouettes of the Canadian Football League. He also served an internship at the McGill University Sports Complex and worked extensively with the YMCA Montreal.

Alleyne has a degree in recreation administration from Concordia University (Montreal), and a business administration degree from Vanier College (Montreal). In December of 2007, Alleyne received his master's degree in sport management from Akron.

MARCUS CASTRO-WALKER

Director of College Personnel

Marcus Castro-Walker enters his sixth season as the director of college personnel for Sun Devil Football.

Castro-Walker began his time at Sun Devil Athletics with the Office of Student-Athlete Development (OSAD) in June 2008 as a graduate assistant while obtaining his Master's Degree in Higher and Post-secondary Education at ASU. Upon Graduation (2011) from his Master's program, Castro-Walker was hired full time to work with the football team as one of the three academic coaches that supports the program. In that role he was responsible for the academic development of football student-athletes for three seasons. He assisted students in securing necessary academic support and life skills training to assure quality academic decision making and to support their personal development.

Castro-Walker is a graduate of Eastern Washington University, where he earned his BA in Communication Studies. He was born in Toronto, Canada, where he then moved to Pullman, Washington to be with family Mike Walker (father) Canadian Football League coach, Kristen Walker (mother) Pullman High School track coach and teacher, Lucy Castro (mother), brother John (rest in peace) and two sisters Taylor (student-athlete at Eastern Washington University), and Payton.

KYLE GRAY

Asst. Director of Operations

The 2020 season will be Kyle Gray's fifth season assisting with the daily operations of Sun Devil Football.

In his current role, Gray serves as the liaison to communicate scheduling to the Sr. Associate AD, operations & facilities, media relations, sports performance management, equipment management and sports medicine; coordinates all scheduling with officials, grounds crew and tram drivers; assists with the planning and coordinating of team summer camps, team schedule, team meals, special events and clinics; and assists with the coordination of the team's annual stay at Camp Tontozona.

Gray came to ASU from Arizona Christian University where he spent a year and a half as the director of football operations and defensive quality control coach.

Gray spent two seasons as an offensive assistant coach at North Canyon High School where he developed and implemented game plans and handled offensive play calling duties during freshmen football games.

A 2014 graduate of Northern Arizona (B.S. degree in business administration), Gray was a seasonal assistant in the operations and distribution management areas of the Fiesta and Insight Bowls for two years.

KEVIN MAWAE

Offensive Analyst

Sixteen-year NFL veteran and Pro Football Hall of Fame Class of 2019 inductee Kevin Mawae joined the Arizona State football program as an offensive analyst on March 12, 2018.

Mawae, who served as the interim tight ends coach during ASU's Sun Bowl preparations in 2019, brings a vast amount of experience as the former NFL center has spent more than 20 years involved in the game. He earned First Team All-Pro honors six times while being named to the Pro Bowl eight times. He is a member of the NFL 2000s All-Decade Team, named to the First Team All-Decade as a center. His 238 career starts places him fifth among offensive linemen in NFL history in that category. Throughout his career, Mawae was known as an elite run blocker as an interior offensive lineman. He blocked for some of the most productive running backs in league history, as evidenced by the fact that he paved the way for a 1,000-yard rusher in 13 of his 16 pro seasons.

The 1993 graduate of LSU was selected in the second round (36th overall pick) by the Seattle Seahawks. While at LSU, Mawae earned AP First Team All-SEC honors in 1991 while receiving AP Second Team All-SEC recognition his final two seasons in Baton Rouge ('92 & '93).

During his first two professional seasons, Mawae started 27 games at right guard, including all 16 games in only his second NFL season. He exclusively switched to center in his third season, which proved to be the right decision. Mawae started all 16 games over the next nine seasons (177 consecutive starts) at one of the most physically demanding positions in the sport.

After four seasons with the Seahawks, Mawae decided to sign with the New York Jets in free agency. Over the next eight seasons, he would become one of the faces of the New York Jets franchise. The impact of his career was felt by many in the organization, culminating in a Ring of Honor induction in 2017. Immediately after joining the Jets, Mawae helped them win the AFC East in his first season. Eventually, the team would earn a berth in the 1998 AFC Championship Game, which represented the Jets first Conference Championship Game appearance since 1982 (17 years).

While in New York, Mawae played for Edwards from 2001-05. The team won at least nine games in three seasons while Edwards and Mawae were together, including an AFC East title and playoff victory during the 2002 season. Mawae was selected to the Pro Bowl six times and All-Pro first team twice in eight seasons as a member of the Jets.

A triceps injury cut his final season as a Jet (2005) short and also ended his consecutive starts streak at an incredible 177. After vigorously rehabbing his injury, Mawae would sign with the Tennessee Titans as an unrestricted free agent. He would show no signs of decline after his injury, as his iron man traits would continue to be on full display in Tennessee. Mawae would go on to start 61 of a possible 64 games as a member of the Titans. During the 2008 season, Mawae was part of the best offensive line in franchise history. He helped set a franchise benchmark in 2008, as the Titans allowed just 12 sacks, which was tied for the fewest in the NFL. That season included a stretch in which the Titans did not allow a sack in five consecutive games.

Mawae continued to give back to the game by fighting for other NFL players towards the latter part of and after his career. He was named the 14th NFLPA President on March 19, 2008, taking over from Troy Vincent. Mawae served as the NFLPA President for four seasons, including guiding and organizing the players through the 2011 NFL lockout. Mawae continues to give back to the community through his post-career endeavors. He has financially supported the Children's Cup International Relief missions, whose mission is to equip local churches to transform communities through holistic child development. In addition, he created the "First and Goal Challenge," which is a unique program to benefit the hospital's Child Life Program and Pediatric Services.

TREY ANDERSON

Offensive Analyst

Trey Anderson enters his first season as an analyst with the Sun Devil football program. In his role, Anderson assists offensive coordinator Zak Hill and helps with the quarterbacks.

Anderson transitioned to the coaching staff as a graduate assistant in 2017 after spending the 2016 season as a management intern. He worked with the Sun Devil defense for one season (2017) and with the quarterbacks (2018) for one season.

Anderson played quarterback at Pitt for three seasons before closing out his career at Florida International.

Before moving to the collegiate ranks, Anderson helped lead his Pearland High School team (Pearland, Texas) to a 16-0 record and the Texas Class 5A Division I state championship as a senior.

Anderson earned his undergraduate degree in Media and Communication Studies from the University of Pittsburgh in 2015 and his master's degree in Liberal Arts and Sciences/Liberal Studies from ASU in 2019.

JUSTON
WOOD
Offensive Analyst

Juston Wood enters his first season as an analyst with Sun Devil Football.

Wood comes to ASU from Boise State where he was a quality control coach for one season. In that role, Wood worked with new ASU offensive coordinator Zak Hill with game planning and running the scout team defense. Wood was also responsible for all opponent data & analysis, weekly advance scouting report, special projects, and gameday coverage & adjustments. In his lone season with the program, Boise State went 12-2 and won the MWC championship.

Prior to his appointment at Boise State, Wood spent two seasons at Georgia Southern where he coached the wide receivers (2017) and quarterbacks (2018). In 2018, quarterback Shai Werts had one of the most efficient seasons in school history. Werts was the only FBS starting quarterback not to throw an interception and Georgia Southern became the first team in NCAA FBS history not to throw an interception all season as the Eagles won 10 games and the Camellia Bowl.

In his first year on the Georgia Southern staff, he molded a young group of receivers that featured a junior, three sophomores and a freshmen in the main rotation. That group combined to catch 57 passes for 871 and four touchdowns while recording nine plays of 25 yards or longer.

Wood, who played in the Arena Football League for three seasons, had eight successful seasons at Cal Poly. He was first the wide receivers coach at Cal Poly in 2009, then switched to coaching the quarterbacks in 2013 and was promoted to offensive coordinator in July 2016.

In 2016, his first season calling the plays, Cal Poly finished second in the FCS in rushing yards per game with an average of 343.5 yards. Fullback Joe Protheroe, offensive tackle Matt Fisher and center Joey Kuperman were named to the all-conference first team while senior quarterback Dano Graves made the second team.

Protheroe became Cal Poly's 20th 1,000-yard rusher for a single season, accumulating 1,334 yards and scoring 13 touchdowns. He also caught seven passes for 139 yards and two more scores. Graves completed 63 percent of his passes (97 of 153) for 1,485 yards and 17 touchdowns. He was intercepted just four times and finished the regular season No. 1 in the Big Sky in passing efficiency. Graves also rushed for 686 yards and nine touchdowns, averaging 4.4 yards per carry with three games of 100 or more yards.

Wood coached Dominique Johnson, who caught 90 passes in the 2009 and 2010 seasons combined and signed an undrafted free agent contract with the Minnesota Vikings in July 2010.

In 2014 and 2015, Wood coached quarterback Chris Brown, who set a school record for rushing yards in a season by a quarterback (1,265) and finished with over 3,000 career yards both rushing and passing.

Wood was a quarterback for the New York Dragons in 2006, Philadelphia Soul in 2007 and back with the Dragons in 2008 before the Arena Football League suspended operations prior to the 2009 campaign. In those three years, he completed 140 of 230 passes (61 percent) for 1,531 yards and 25 touchdowns.

He played for the Central Valley Coyotes of af2 in 2005, earned second-team All-National Conference honors, led af2 in total offense averaging 282.4 yards per game and passed for 4,361 yards and 89 touchdowns. He also played for the Coyotes in 2004, completing 60 of 105 passes for 651 yards and 15 scores. Wood signed as a free agent with the Minnesota Vikings on April 28, 2003.

Wood has had some experience in Hollywood as well, serving as a stunt double on "The Longest Yard" movie remake starring Adam Sandler and also shot a commercial for the "Madden NFL 2005" video game.

Wood was a standout student-athlete under the tutelage of Tim Walsh at Portland State, twice earning ADA Academic All-American honors. He was a first-team All-Big Sky Conference selection at quarterback in 2001 and honorable mention in 2002, serving as team captain both seasons.

He ended his collegiate career ranked sixth in school history with 5,681 yards of total offense and finished his career with 5,653 passing yards, 37 touchdown passes, 414 completions and six 300-yard passing games. He led the Big Sky in passing as a junior.

Wood was a three-year varsity letter winner in football at David Douglas High School in Portland and served as an assistant coach at David Douglas High School for three seasons. Twice he earned all-conference honors in basketball. As a senior in high school, he played in the Oregon State All-Star Games in football, basketball and baseball.

Wood earned his bachelor's degree in public health education at Portland State in April 2003 and married his wife Lindsay in 2014. The couple has a daughter, Avila, and a son, Cash.

ANTHONY GARNETT
Defensive Analyst

Former college quarterback and coaching veteran Anthony Garnett enters his third season as a defensive analyst for Sun Devil Football.

Garnett joined the staff after serving as the special teams coordinator and the strength & conditioning coach at De Anza College in Cupertino, Calif. He was responsible for all special teams calls on gameday for the Dons, helping the team double its win total in his first season on staff.

Garnett played his collegiate ball at Cal Poly, earning a full scholarship after transferring from junior college. During his time as a Mustang, Garnett led the school to its highest national ranking since transitioning to the Division I-AA (FCS) level. He served as the Mustangs team captain and led the 2005 team to its first DI-AA playoff berth. Cal Poly also captured the 2004 Great West conference title in Garnett's second season in San Luis Obispo.

Garnett compiled accolades at Cal Poly that include a First-Team All Great West selection in 2005. Garnett finished top-10 in the nation in passing efficiency (158.1), totaling 21 passing TDs while adding 12 rushing TDs in 13 games leading the Mustangs to a 10-3 record in 2005. Garnett graduated from Cal Poly in 2006 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Kinesiology.

Garnett has made several stops during his coaching career, including the 2016-17 season serving as the assistant head coach with offensive coordinator duties as well as the defensive backs coach for the Seaside High School Varsity Football Program. In his only season coaching, Garnett led the Spartans to an undefeated season and a Monterey Bay League Title and sectional semifinals appearance as a number two seed in California Interscholastic Federation Central Coast Section Playoffs.

Garnett has extensive experience at the junior college level, with connections to several prominent CCCAA schools. From 2014-16, he served as the tight ends and wide receivers coach at Monterey Peninsula College in Monterey, Calif. He was responsible for developing the weekly schematic framework of passing plays as the passing game coordinator and assisted in the offensive coordinator's game planning. While coaching at MPC, Garnett earned his Master of Science in Recreation and Sport Pedagogy Concentration in Coaching Education from Ohio University at the Patton College of Education Earned in 2015.

Before entering the junior college coaching ranks, Garnett was the quarterbacks coach at Missouri University S&T at the NCAA Division II level. While a member of the Knights coaching staff from 2010-12, he assisted the offensive coordinator with weekly game planning by creating detailed scouting reports on opposing defenses. The offense scored 14 more touchdowns in his second year compared to his first year on campus.

MARCUS
LEWIS
Defensive Analyst

Marcus Lewis is in his first season as a defensive analyst for Sun Devil Football.

Lewis arrived in Tempe after serving as running backs coach at Hampton during the 2019 season. Under Lewis' guidance, running back Shai McKenzie (1,263 yards) earned first-team All-Big South honors after becoming the first Hampton running back to run for 1,000 yards since 2012. In addition to his duties with the running backs, Lewis also assisted with Hampton's special teams.

Prior to Hampton, Lewis spent five seasons with the Cincinnati Bengals where he was the team's assistant defensive line/defensive quality control coach (2014-17) and assistant linebackers/defensive quality control coach (2018). During his time with the Bengals, Lewis worked with Pro Bowl players DT Geno Atkins (went to Pro Bowl all four of Lewis' seasons working with defensive line) and DE Carlos Dunlap (2015 Pro Bowl).

Lewis, who has coached the defensive line in three all-star games (2018 and 2019 East-West Shrine Game, 2020 NFL PA All-Star Game), served as an assistant coach at the University of Cincinnati in 2013 working with the defensive line, scout teams film breakdown and practice organization.

Lewis earned his degree in Recreation Sports Management from Indiana State where he was a member of the football team from 2008-12.

MICHAEL FLETCHER

Defensive Analyst

Michael Fletcher is in his first year as an defensive analyst for Sun Devil Football.

Prior to joining the ASU staff, Fletcher was a lead evaluator and member of the coaching staff for Student Sports, a premier event and grassroots marketing organization dedicated to student-athletes. In his role with Student Sports, Fletcher served as a lead evaluator for The Opening football event. His duties in that position included instructing coaches on position specific drills, workouts, and evaluation of elite high school football athletes. Fletcher was also a member of The Opening/Elite 11 Staff, serving as a lead staffer for a National Multi-city tour with local high school coaches and trainers for combines, regionals and finals events.

In addition to his duties with Student Sports, Fletcher served as assistant head coach and defensive and special teams coordinator for 10 seasons (2010-19) at Paramount High School in Paramount, Calif. Before joining the staff at Paramount, Fletcher was a speed and conditioning coach at Edison High School in Huntington Beach, Calif.

Fletcher played nine years in the CFL (BC Lions/Toronto Argonauts) where he won two Grey Cup Championships and was voted to the All-Time Toronto Argonaut team as an OLB in 2007. Fletcher, who played in more than 150 games during his pro career, was a team leader in tackles on two occasions and led the CFL in interceptions in 2001.

Fletcher earned his undergraduate degree in journalism from the University of Oregon in 1999. While at Oregon, Fletcher was a two-time All-Pac-10 performer as a defensive back and returner and was team captain in 1998-99.

DONNIE
HENDERSON

Consultant

Donnie Henderson, a coaching veteran with more than 30 years of experience with major college programs and the NFL, is in his first season as a consultant with Sun Devil Football. Henderson is in his second stint with the program after serving as an assistant coach at ASU in the 90s.

Henderson has coached and succeeded at the highest level of the game, guiding the Baltimore

Ravens secondary that contributed to the team's World Championship in 2000. The unit helped the Ravens defense set NFL records for fewest points and rushing yards allowed in a season.

During his decorated career, Henderson has coached eight NFL Pro Bowlers, including Professional Football Hall of Fame inductee Rod Woodson. He has also coached two AP Defensive Rookie of the Year honorees in Jonathan Vilma (2004) and Ron Darby (2015).

Henderson's NFL experience includes coaching assignments with the Baltimore Ravens (1999-2003/assistant DBs coach and DBs coach, Super Bowl winner in 2000 and AFC North champions in 2003), New York Jets (2004-05/defensive coordinator), Detroit Lions (2006/defensive coordinator), Cincinnati Bengals (2007/consultant), Jacksonville Jaguars (2008/secondary coach), Arizona Cardinals (2010/secondary coach) and Buffalo Bills (2013-15/secondary coach).

During Henderson's tenure with the Ravens from 1999-2003, Baltimore ranked second in the NFL with 88 interceptions and he tutored a secondary that included Pro Bowlers in safeties Woodson, and Ed Reed, and cornerback Chris McAlister.

In 2004, Henderson was the coordinator for the Jets defense that improved to seventh, from 21st, in the NFL in total defense and Vilma was named the 2004 AP Defensive Rookie of the Season. In 2005, the Jets finished second in the NFL in total passing yards allowed (172.2 avg.) and finished fifth with 21 interceptions.

Henderson started his coaching career at the college level. After his initial stop at Utah State (1983-88/graduate assistant and outside linebackers coach), Henderson moved on to Idaho (1989/recruiting coordinator and defensive backs coach) before earning successive positions in the Pac-10 with Cal (1990-91/outside linebackers coach) and his first stop at ASU (1992-97/safeties coach and defensive backs coach). Henderson also coached one season at the University of Houston (1998/assistant head coach and defensive backs coach) before moving to the pro ranks with Baltimore in 1999. In 1996, Henderson's Sun Devil defensive backs contributed to the squad's 11-0 regular season and near national title after being edged by Ohio State 20-17 in the 1997 Rose Bowl.

Henderson returned to the college ranks for two seasons as an assistant coach at Southern (2011/secondary coach) and Syracuse (2012/secondary coach) before returning to the NFL to accept the position in Buffalo. At Southern, Henderson guided the Jaguars defensive backfield that ranked 29th nationally in pass defense.

Henderson was on teams that went 4-1 in bowl games as he was on the winning side in the 1990 Copper Bowl (Cal), 1991 Citrus Bowl (Cal), 1997 Sun Bowl (ASU) and 2012 Pinstripe Bowl (Syracuse).

In addition to his NCAA and NFL coaching positions, Henderson has also coached in the UFL (volunteer assistant coach for the California Redwoods in 2009), The Spring League (defensive coordinator in 2017-18), NFL Pathway (secondary coach in 2018) and the AAF (defensive coordinator for the Salt Lake City Stallions in 2019).

A native of Baltimore, Md., Henderson attended

Locke High School (Los Angeles, Calif.). He played two seasons at Santa Monica Junior College before transferring to Utah State where he earned first-team Big West Conference honors as a senior cornerback in 1979. He was selected by the Detroit Lions in the 10th round (251st overall) of the 1980 NFL Draft.

LUGINBILL

Director of Player Personnel

Al Luginbill was named director of player personnel for Sun Devil Football on May 10, 2018. Luginbill brings experience not only as a former Arizona State defensive coordinator and assistant coach with two Fiesta Bowl Championships on his record, but for 12 years prior to rejoining ASU he owned and operated Fastak Enterprises, a company specializing in football player evaluation from the high school to the NFL level.

"Building an elite college football program begins with talent evaluation," ASU head coach Herm Edwards said when he announced Luginbill's appointment. "Al has been one of the most respected talent evaluators in the game of football for over four decades. He has experience in talent evaluation at every level of football. He's always been on the cutting edge of talent evaluation, whether it was by creating successful companies or developing concepts such as the annual Under Armour All-American game or NFL football overseas. We are extremely fortunate to have someone of his caliber join our staff."

"I am honored to return to ASU, helping Coach Edwards and his fine coaching and support staff elevate the Sun Devil football program," says Luginbill. "I am very impressed with Coach Edwards and the fine staff he has assembled at ASU. I look forward to working in such a dynamic environment. My family and I have always enjoyed our time on the Tempe campus."

As part owner of Football Scouts Inc. from 2001 to 2006, Luginbill focused on NFL free agency and NFL draft prospects, developing a user friendly searchable database for both. He then implemented ESPN's high school recruiting website, also providing a user friendly database. ESPN purchased Football Scouts, Inc. in 2006, abbreviating the name to Scouts, Inc., which it continues to use to this day.

From 2006 until 2011, Luginbill was contracted by the Denver Broncos to evaluate NFL players for free agency and college players who had first, second, and third round grades. Also from 2008-2017, he worked with Under Armour and ESPN to implement the Under Armour All-America Football Game for high school seniors. His relationship with Under Armour was expanded to include all football-related events on the high school level, including camps, combines and other special events. Fastak Enterprises was involved in the creation of UC Report, a recruiting database that specializes in the evaluation of high school football prospects at the freshman and sophomore level.

Luginbill began his coaching career at Pasadena City College as a linebacker coach. He became an assistant coach at Arizona State under Frank Kush as the defensive back coach in 1972, helping ASU to a Fiesta Bowl win. After a return to Pasadena CC as head coach and a national championship in the Junior Rose Bowl, and a stint at the University of Wyoming, Luginbill returned to ASU in 1979, eventually becoming defensive coordinator. He helped lead the Sun Devils to another Fiesta Bowl victory. Among his recruiting successes at ASU were future NFL Hall of Fame members Mike Haynes and Randall McDaniel.

San Diego State named Luginbill as its head football coach in 1989, where he spent the next five years. He was named Western Athletic Conference Coach of the Year in 1991 after earning a berth in the Freedom Bowl. Among his standout recruits at SDSU were NFL Hall of Famer Marshall Faulk and six-time Pro Bowler La'Roi Glover. Keith Turley was a first-round draft pick and Darnay Scott and Will Blackwell were both selected in the second-round of the NFL Draft. Assistant coach Sean Payton went on to coach the New Orleans Saints, leading them to their first Super Bowl championship. Other former assistants under Luginbill's tutelage who went on to earn head coaching positions were Curtis Johnson at Tulane and Steve Fairchild at Colorado State.

In 1995, Luginbill was hired by the NFL as director of football operations and coach of the Amsterdam Admirals of the World League, later known as NFL Europe. Being responsible for all aspects of player evaluation, Luginbill had access to all 32 NFL player personnel departments. Draft preparation included evaluating young players that did not make NFL active rosters. Kurt Warner, Jake Delhomme, Jay Fiedler, Darren Bennett, Tom Nutter, Adam Vinatieri and Bobby Hamilton all became successful NFL starters after playing in this organization.

Following his success with the NFL Luginbill was hired by the XFL as director of football operations and head coach of the Los Angeles Xtreme, leading his team to the XFL Championship in 2001. Quarterback Tommy Maddox was MVP of the league and went on to become the NFL Comeback Player of the Year the following season.

Luginbill earned his bachelor's degree (business/history/physical education) from California State Polytechnic University and master's degree (higher education and administration) from USC. He and his wife, Sue, live in Chandler. They have grown twins, Tom and Kerry. Kerry, lives nearby with her family and Tom is a football analyst with ESPN and resides in the Charlotte, North Carolina, area with his wife Tennille and their son Quaid and daughter Keaton.

RYNE REZAC

Asst. Director, Football On-Campus Recruiting

Ryne Rezac enters his third season as the On-Campus Recruiting Coordinator for Sun Devil Football.

Rezac joined ASU from the University of Nevada where he served as the director of player personnel and recruiting under former Sun Devil Football assistant Jay Norvell beginning in January 2017. In his role, Rezac maintained Nevada's recruiting and operations budgets and coordinated all records and information for incoming recruits and current personnel.

Prior to arriving in Reno, Rezac was a part of the Sun Devil Football staff from 2014-16 in three different roles. He first served as a volunteer for recruiting, operations, defense and offense from 2014-15, assisting with charting games, day-to-day operations, film review, postgame analysis charts and breakdown of opponents' film.

Rezac became a management intern for recruiting and operations in 2016, assisting with social media, organizing summer camps and other aspects of recruiting.

From there, Rezac was promoted to his incoming role of On-Campus Recruiting Coordinator, which he held from 2016-17. He was in charge of planning all recruiting visits, social media, scouting video and reports for Sun Devil Football.

Rezac graduated from North Central College in Naperville, Illinois, with a double major in Sports Business and Management in 2014. As a football student-athlete at NCC, Rezac was a part of the winningest class in program history, earning a 44-7 record.

He is currently working toward a master's degree in Educational Leadership: High Education. While at North Central College, Rezac served on the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) and helped to create the Fellowship of Christian Athletes (FCA) at NCC.

Rezac lives in Gilbert, Ariz. with his wife, Lucia, and her daughter Maile.

RADMEN NIVEN

Football Recruiting - Creative Director

Radmen Niven joined Sun Devil Football as football recruiting creative director in May 2018.

In his role, Niven coordinates the entire marketing campaign for both off-season and in-season recruiting. He serves as photographer for all photo shoots for official and unofficial visits for numerous Sun Devil Athletics sports. During the season Niven shoots and edits all recruiting videos which include weekly uniform releases, day-to-day practices, lifting and game day videos. He directed, produced, shot and edited the first ever on-the-road recruiting videos in college football.

Niven came to ASU from Western Illinois University where he served as player personnel/video coordinator. At WIU, Niven created the football marketing plan which included social media and recruiting graphics designs. He also assisted with early signing day period operations and managed the recruiting territory of Southern Illinois, Minnesota, and all junior college/ 4 year transfers.

Niven also has assisted with operations and recruiting at Texas Wesleyan and Northern Colorado. Niven walked on to Northern Colorado's football team in 2014 and earned a full scholarship in 2016. Niven earned both his bachelor's (criminology and criminal justice in 2015) and master's (sports coaching/administration in 2017) degrees from Northern Colorado.

MATT SEILER

Senior Player Personnel Assistant

Matt Seiler was named senior player personnel assistant in July 2019.

Seiler was promoted to his current position after serving as a football recruiting graduate assistant in the Sun Devil football office for two years. In his previous role Seiler oversaw all defensive evaluation and worked on a daily basis with the coaching staff to ensure the identification of top prospects in the country. Seiler arranged and coordinated logistical planning for official recruiting visits and developed recruiting trips for coaching staff based on player evaluation.

Seiler initially started working with Sun Devil Football as an operations and recruiting student manager. Seiler's other experiences in athletics include a spring training internship with the Cincinnati Reds and a digital broadcast/game presentation internship with the Green Bay Packers.

Seiler earned his undergraduate degree in Business Sports & Media Studies from ASU's W.P. Carey School of Business in 2017 and his Masters of Sports Law & Business from ASU's Sandra Day O'Connor School of Law in 2019.

ASU IN THE FINAL POLLS

Arizona State has been ranked nationally by at least one poll at season's end 20 times. The Sun Devils' highest ranking came in 1975 when they finished second nationally in both major polls (Associated Press-media, United Press International-coaches) behind national champion Oklahoma.

ASU's 10-1-1 team of 1986, which completed its Pac-10 title season by defeating Michigan 22-15 in the Rose Bowl, was ranked fourth and fifth nationally by AP and UPI, respectively. In 1996, ASU completed an undefeated (11-0) regular season before losing to Ohio State in the Rose Bowl, finishing ranked fourth in both major polls.

Here are ASU's final national rankings:

ASSISTANT COACHES

Mike Martz was an assistant football coach for Arizona State. From 1983 to 1987 he coached the quarterbacks and receivers, then became the offensive coordinator from 1988 to 1991. Martz would become offensive coordinator and the mastermind of the St. Louis Rams' Greatest Show on Turf. After helping St. Louis earn a Super Bowl victory in 1999, he would become head coach for the next five seasons and would again take the team on another Super Bowl trip.

Lovie Smith began coaching linebackers on the college level in 1983. He joined the Sun Devil coaching staff as an assistant coach from 1988 to 1991. Smith would go on to the pros and serve as head coach of the Chicago Bears from 2004 to 2012. In 2006, he would lead the Bears to a Super Bowl appearance against the Indianapolis Colts in Super Bowl XLII. He served as head coach of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers for two seasons before being named the head coach at the University of Illinois on March 7, 2016

Hue Jackson spent four years at Arizona State as an assistant coach. Jackson was ASU's running backs coach from 1992 to 1994, and then handled the Sun Devil quarterbacks in 1995. Jackson has coached on multiple NFL teams that include the Washington Redskins, Atlanta Falcons, Baltimore Ravens, Oakland Raiders and Cincinnati Bengals. He has twice been a head coach in the NFL, leading the Raiders during the 2011-12 season while in charge of the Cleveland Browns from 2016-18.

The current Sun Devil coaching staff under former NFL Head Coach Herm Edwards is littered with NFL connections. Special Advisor to Sun Devil Football Marvin Lewis has coached over 25 years in the NFL, winning Super Bowl XXXV as the defensive coordinator of the Baltimore Ravens. He also enjoyed a 16-season stint as head coach of the Cincinnati Bengals. Associate Head Coach and Special Teams Coordinator Shawn Slocum won Super Bowl XLV as a part of the Green Bay Packers coaching staff. Former New York Giants linebacker and Super Bowl XLII Champion Antonio Pierce is the Sun Devil's Recruiting Coordinator and Linebacker coach. Recent Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee Kevin Mawae serves as a Analyst. Sun Devil Hall of Famer and current Analyst Derek Hagan spent nine seasons in the NFL. Sun Devil Hall of Famer Danny White, who played 13 seasons in the NFL, is currently a consultant to the football program.

NFL DRAFT AND SIGNINGS

TOP PICKS

Arizona State football student-athletes have enjoyed tremendous success in the first round of the annual NFL draft. In 2019, wide receiver N'Keal Harry became the 27th Sun Devil to be taken in the first round of the AFL or NFL draft. Arizona State was one of just three schools in the nation to have a first-round draft pick from 2000-03 (Miami and Florida). ASU's 27 first-round picks in the NFL draft are tied for third-most among all Pac-12 teams, behind only USC (81) and UCLA (36). Here is a complete listing of Arizona State's first round draft selections in the order by which they were picked:
